2013 USC SPRING FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

If the USC football team wants inspiration heading into 2013, it needs to only look back to 2002.

That was the last time Troy entered a season coming off a 6-loss campaign. That Trojan squad rebounded by going 10-2, capturing the league title and winning a BCS bowl.

The 2013 USC team certainly has the ingredients to put together a similarly successful run.

The Trojans return 16 starters (8 on offense), including the kicker, from 2012 (they also welcome back a 2-year starter who was sidelined last fall with an injury). In all, 79 squadmen are back from last year, including 61 who saw action in 2012, 57 who lettered, 34 who were on USC's season ending 2-deep and 30 who have started at least once in their career.

Add to that a small (13 players), but highly-ranked, class of recruits. Eight of those new players were listed among the ESPN 100. USC's average star ranking per player (4.4 stars), as calculated by various recruiting outlets, was significantly higher than any other school. Seven newcomers—including USA Today's Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, the Gatorade National and California Players of the Year and Cal-Hi Sports' California Mr. Football—enrolled at USC this semester and will participate in 2013 spring practice. (USC is in the second of a 3-year NCAA sanction that limits its overall roster to 75 scholarship players annually and no more than 15 signees per year, both 10 fewer than the NCAA maximum.)

The 2012 Trojans, who began last year at 6-1 before dropping 5 of their last 6 games, finished tied for second in the Pac-12 South Division at 5-4 and, after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban, played in the Hyundai Sun Bowl. All 7 of USC's victories were by double digits.

As difficult as USC's 2012 season was for Trojan fans, it was only the 13th time in its 120 years of football that Troy has lost at least 6 games. So, the odds are high that last year's 7-6 outcome was an aberration in USC's glorious gridiron history.

"Last season did not finish up as we all hoped, leaving our players, coaches and fans terribly disappointed," said fourth-year USC head coach Lane Kiffin. "We have worked hard since then to focus on the positives while learning from the negatives. We analyzed our entire program and made necessary changes as we strive to get back to the level of play we had when we won 17 out of 20 games before our slump at the end of last season.

"The most important thing we must do this spring is develop our depth at all positions as we continue to manage our reduced numbers due to our NCAA scholarship sanctions."

Headlining the 2013 Trojan roster is dynamic wide receiver/returner Marqise Lee, a unanimous 2012 All-American first team selection who won USC's first-ever Biletnikoff Award last fall when he finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting. The 2012 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year owns or shares 19 USC records (5 are Pac-12 marks), including most receptions (118) in a season and most receiving yards in a season (1,721) and game (345), all league standards he set last year. He was second nationally in receptions and receiving yards in 2012. He is on target to break USC's career records for receptions and kickoff return yards.

Also back as starters on offense are tailback Silas Redd, a 2,500-yard career rusher (905 of those yards came last fall at USC after he transferred from Penn State), tight ends Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer, who have combined for 82 career catches with 18 TDs, offensive linemen Kevin Graf, John Martinez, Marcus Martin, Aundrey Walker and 2012 Freshman All-American first teamer Max Tuerk, and fullback Soma Vainuku.

Other offensive players with career starts are wide receiver Nelson Agholor, quarterback Max Wittek, tailbacks D.J. Morgan and Tre Madden, fullback Jahleel Pinner and lineman Cyrus Hobbi.

Starters returning on the other side of the ball are defensive end Morgan Breslin, a 2012 Hendricks Award finalist when he posted 19.5 tackles for loss and 13 sacks (the most at USC since 2003), 2012 Freshman All-American first team defensive tackle Leonard Williams, who was the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year (he had 13.5 tackles for loss and 8 sacks), 2-year starting linebackers Hayes Pullard, Dion Bailey and Lamar Dawson (they have 451 career tackles combined), defensive tackle George Uko and safety Josh Shaw (he started at cornerback last year). Also back after sitting out 2012 with a chest injury is defensive end Devon Kennard, who had 18 starts and 135 tackles in his first 3 years at USC.

Other defensive players with career starts are cornerbacks Torin Harris, Anthony Brown and Kevon Seymour, defensive linemen Antwaun Woods and J.R. Tavai and linebacker Anthony Sarao.

Andre Heidari, who has 25 career field goals, returns after spending the past 2 years as the placekicker. Alex Wood, who filled in when Heidari was out with a knee injury last fall, also is back.

Although USC must replace only 8 starters from 2012, the losses are significant.

Gone are:

—quarterback Matt Barkley, a 4-year starter who set Pac-12 records for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), touchdowns (116) and total offense (12,214) as he won the 2012 Wuerffel Trophy, was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award and was a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete;

—2011 All-American and 3-year starting wide receiver Robert Woods, USC's career pass catching leader (252 receptions) who declared for the NFL after his junior season;

—2011 All-American safety T.J. McDonald, a 3-year starter who had 275 career tackles and 8 interceptions (his 112 tackles last year were the most by a Trojan since 2001);

—2012 Rimington Award finalist center Khaled Holmes, a 3-year starter who made last season's All-Pac-12 first team, Academic All-American second team and Pac-12 All-Academic first team;

—Nickell Robey, a 3-year starting lockdown cornerback who left early for the NFL after making 163 tackles, 7 interceptions and 17 deflections in his career (his 3 picks for TDs tied the USC career record);

—tailback Curtis McNeal, who had 1,739 career rushing yards (including 701 last year while sharing time with Redd);

—defensive end Wes Horton, who had 117 career tackles with 13.5 sacks while starting 32 times;

—3-year starting safety Jawanza Starling;

—and directional punter Kyle Negrete, who averaged 41.5 yards per boot in his career and never had a touchback among his 83 punts (he pinned opponents within the 20-yard line 39 times).

Kiffin reconstructed his coaching staff in the off-season, bringing in 4 new assistants and re-defining roles for some of the others.

Clancy Pendergast, who coordinated some of the top defenses in the NFL and college (the past 3 seasons at California), is the new defensive coordinator and will coach the secondary. His recent experience in the Pac-12 will be valuable when combatting the many styles of offense seen in the league. Mike Summers, who helped produce some of the most productive offenses in the history of schools such as Arkansas, Louisville, Kentucky, Oregon State and Ohio, is the running game coordinator and offensive line coach. Tommie Robinson, another veteran collegiate and NFL coach (most recently with the Arizona Cardinals), is the passing game coordinator and running backs coach. Mike Ekeler, who helped turn out defenses that ranked among the nation's best while at Oklahoma, LSU and Nebraska, will coach the linebackers after serving as Indiana's co-defensive coordinator the past 2 seasons.

Of the returning coaches, quarterbacks coach Clay Helton takes on the offensive coordinator duty. Associate head coach/special teams coordinator John Baxter has added tight ends to his duties. James Cregg will work with Summers coaching the offensive line. Ed Orgeron remains in his role assistant head coach/recruiting coordinator/defensive line coach and Tee Martin remains as the wide receivers coach. Graduate assistant Ross Cummings will now work with the outside linebackers.

"We all are looking forward to moving forward," said Kiffin. "The players understand there is no depth chart going into spring practice. With the new coaches, they get a clean slate and a fresh start."

The Trojans will play seven home games in the Coliseum in 2013. Overall, USC's 13-game schedule features seven teams that played in a bowl this year, all winning at least 8 games, and four who finished ranked in the final AP Top 25. Four opponents will be guided by new coaches. USC will play twice on Thursday nights, including once at home, and one time on Friday night. The Trojans will not play Pac-12 foes Oregon or Washington in the regular season in 2013 or 2014.

USC will open its 2013 slate with a Thursday night road game on Aug. 29 against Norm Chow's Hawaii team, the fourth time that the Trojans have opened a season facing the Warriors in Honolulu's Aloha Stadium. Troy then begins Pac-12 play by hosting Washington State on Sept. 7, the first of three consecutive home games for the Trojans. USC then welcomes a pair of squads that last visited the Coliseum in the 1980s: Boston College with new head coach Steve Addazio on Sept. 14 and defending Western Athletic Conference champion Utah State and new coach Matt Wells on Sept. 21. The Trojans return to Pac-12 action at Arizona State on Sept. 28, then have a bye before hosting Arizona in a Thursday night contest on Oct. 10, the first-ever non-Thanksgiving or non-bowl Thursday game USC has played in the Coliseum (the last time USC played a weekday game at home was the 2002 opener against Auburn on Labor Day). USC next travels to BCS Championship Game participant Notre Dame on Oct. 19 for its annual intersectional clash before returning home to host Utah on Oct. 26 on Trojan Family Weekend. The Trojans then go to Oregon State for a Friday night game on Nov. 1, the first of three road trips in a four-game span. After visiting California, guided by new coach Sonny Dykes, on Nov. 9, USC returns to the Coliseum to play defending Pac-12 champ Stanford on Nov. 16 on Homecoming/Reunion Weekend before going to Colorado (under new coach Mike MacIntyre) on Nov. 23. Troy concludes its regular season by hosting crosstown rival UCLA in a Thanksgiving weekend battle on Nov. 30.

"Our focus now is forward looking," said Kiffin. "Nothing matters but winning the game in front of us."

OFFENSE

Eight starters return on offense from 2012: wide receiver Marqise Lee, tailback Silas Redd, co-starting tight ends Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer, tackle Kevin Graf, guards John Martinez and Marcus Martin, co-starting tackles Aundrey Walker and Max Tuerk and fullback Soma Vainuku. Others back with starting experience are wide receiver Nelson Agholor, quarterback Max Wittek, tailbacks D.J. Morgan and Tre Madden, fullback Jahleel Pinner and center-guard Cyrus Hobbi.

USC's top rusher (and 7 of its top 9 ground gainers) and leading pass catcher (and 11 of the 13 players who caught a pass) from 2012 are back. USC averaged 32 points and 432 yards of total offense per game in 2012, numbers that were just slightly lower than those from its 10-win season of 2011. Troy was ranked in the national Top 41 in passing efficiency (147.7), passing offense (282.3), total offense (432.9), scoring offense (32.1) and sacks allowed (1.3) in 2012. But the Trojans struggled on third down conversions (34.2%) and in the red zone (74.5%) last season and had 34 turnovers, all areas where improvement is needed.

"With a revamped offensive coaching staff now in place, we anticipate a very competitive spring from our offense," said Kiffin. "We will strive to put together a balanced offense while shoring up our depth at all positions.

"Our biggest challenge offensively will be to adequately replace a pair of recordbreaking Trojans, Matt Barkley and Robert Woods, along with the steady play that Khaled Holmes gave us. Whoever ends up starting in their places will be well-served by the 8 returning offensive starters, led by the play and leadership of Marqise Lee."

QUARTERBACKS

USC's most pressing challenge in 2012 will be replacing the play and leadership of 4-year starting quarterback Matt Barkley, the Pac-12 career recordholder for total offense (12,214), passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001) and touchdown passes (116). He set 20 USC career, season and game records (10 were Pac-12 standards). Last fall, he completed 63.6% of his passes for 3,273 yards and 36 TDs. USC's first-ever 3-time captain, he won the 2012 Wuerffel Trophy (athletics/academics/community service) and was a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete.

Three young signalcallers will vie for the starting job in 2013: sophomores Max Wittek (36-of-69, 52.2%, 388 yds, 3 TD, 5 int in 2012) and Cody Kessler (2-of-2, 100.0%, 9 yds in 2012) and first-year freshman Max Browne. Wittek started USC's final 2 games of 2012 when Barkley was sidelined with a shoulder injury, acquitting himself well against Notre Dame but struggling in the cold and wind in the Sun Bowl versus Georgia Tech. Kessler, who was the holder on placekicks in the second half of 2012, appeared briefly in 2 games last season. Prep All-American Browne (Skyline High in Sammamish, Wash.), who graduated high school a semester early so he could enroll at USC this spring, was the 2012 Gatorade National Player of the Year and USA Today's Offensive National Player of the Year as he led Skyline to a pair of Washington state championships and set state career records for passing yards (12,953) and completions (882) while competing 70.4% of his passes for 146 TDs.

Also available is walk-on redshirt freshman Conner Sullivan.

"The biggest individual shoes to fill on our team are at quarterback," said Kiffin. "We were incredibly fortunate to have Matt Barkley lead our team these past 4 years. This spring, there will be a 3-way competition between our talented young quarterbacks. I'm excited to watch them compete and see how it goes."

RUNNING BACKS

Although Curtis McNeal, who accumulated 1,739 career rushing yards (including 701 last year) while starting 12 times (8 in 2012), is gone, USC is well-stocked at the tailback position.

Returning is veteran senior Silas Redd (167 tcb, 905 yds, 5.4 avg, 9 TD in 2012, plus 9 rec, 113 yds, 12.6 avg, 1 TD and 1 tac), who started 6 games last fall after transferring from Penn State. He has run for 2,583 yards in his career at both schools, including 10 career 100-yard rushing games (3 at USC).

Junior D.J. Morgan (41 tcb, 201 yds, 4.9 avg, 1 TD in 2012, plus 1 rec, 24 yds, 24.0 avg, 1 TD), also a hurdler on the Trojan track team who started twice at tailback in 2011, and sophomore Javorius Allen (6 tcb, 32 yds, 5.3 avg in 2012) add quality depth. So does high-potential soph Tre Madden, who was switched from linebacker to tailback in 2012 spring practice and was very impressive before suffering a knee injury that sidelined him last fall.

Joining the tailback fray as freshmen will be a pair of prep All-Americans in Justin Davis (Lincoln High in Stockton, Calif.), who enrolled at USC this spring after graduating a semester early from high school, and Ty Isaac (Joliet Catholic Academy in Joliet, Ill.), who comes aboard in the fall.

SILAS REDD

SOMA VAINUKU

There also are a trio of walk-on tailbacks: senior John Akiba (4 tcb, 17 yds, 4.2 avg in 2012), who will miss spring ball after having shoulder surgery, junior Alec Jaffe and sophomore Taylor Ross, who is out of spring practice while recuperating from surgery on a fractured foot.

USC's fullback corps is thin and young, but it is experienced. Sophomores Soma Vainuku (7 tcb, 26 yds, 3.7 avg in 2012, plus 8 rec, 50 yds, 6.2 avg and 6 tac) and Jahleel Pinner (1 tac in 2012), used primarily as blockers so far, both notched starts last year.

"We need more production out of our run game in 2013," said Kiffin. "We will make it an emphasis to establish the run. Silas Redd is a talented veteran runner and we expect a big senior year out of him. We need the younger running backs to step up. And, although we don't have much depth at fullback, we would like to get that position more involved in the offense."

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC returns the nation's best wide receiver—and perhaps the nation's premier player—in junior Marqise Lee (118 rec, 1,721 yds, 14.6 avg, 14 TD in 2012, plus 13 tcb, 106 yds, 8.2 avg and 30 KOR, 856 yds, 28.5 avg, 1 TD and 2 tac). The unanimous 2012 All-American first teamer and Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year won USC's first-ever Biletnikoff Award last season and he is now a top candidate for the Heisman Trophy (he finished fourth in 2012). Also a dangerous kick returner, he owns or shares 19 USC records (5 are Pac-12 marks), including most receptions (118) in a season and most receiving yards in a season (1,721) and game (345), all league standards he set last year. He was second nationally in receptions (9.1) and receiving yards (132.4), third in all-purpose yards (206.4) and eighth in kickoff returns (28.5) in 2012. Last year, he averaged 16.7 yards every time he touched the ball, the average length of his 15 TDs was 40.8 yards, he had 16 plays of 40-plus yards and more than half of his 118 receptions went for first downs. Also a member of the Trojan track team, he is on target to break USC's career records for receptions (he is sixth with 191 catches) and kickoff return yards (eighth with 1,141 yards).

USC, however, will miss Lee's receiving mate, Robert Woods. The 2011 All-American first teamer and 3-year starter, who is USC's career pass catching leader (252 receptions), declared for the NFL after his 2012 junior season. He owns or shares 12 USC records; in addition to the career receptions mark, he also set game standards for receptions (17) and TD catches (4). His 32 career scoring receptions are second most in USC history. He had a catch in his last 33 games.

Looking to fill Woods' spot will be often-used sophomore Nelson Agholor (19 rec, 340 yds, 17.9 avg, 2 TD in 2012, plus 1 tcb, 7 yds, 7.0 avg and 5 KOR, 121 yds, 24.2 avg and 4 tac, 1 FR), who also returned kicks in 2012, speedy junior George Farmer (1 rec, 7 yds, 7.0 avg in 2012), who also sprints for the Trojan tracksters, senior De'Von Flournoy (1 rec, 21 yards, 21.0 avg in 2012) and soph Victor Blackwell (1 rec, 9 yds, 9.0 avg in 2012).

Two freshmen who were prep All-Americans will join the wide receiver competition: Darreus Rogers (Carson High in Carson, Calif.), who originally signed with USC in February of 2012 but did not enroll until this spring semester, and Steven Mitchell (Bishop Alemany High in Mission Hills, Calif.), who enrolls this fall.

There also are 3 walk-on wideouts: senior Cody Skene and sophomores George Katrib and Christian Tober.

"We have the best player in the country in Marqise Lee and we will continue to take advantage of his skills," said Kiffin. "But we also lost one of the best receivers in college football history in Robert Woods. So our younger wideouts must to find a way to fill in and help our offensive attack."

TIGHT ENDS

Tight end might be USC's most solid position, as equally-proficient juniors Xavier Grimble (29 rec, 316, 10.9 avg, 5 TDs in 2012, plus 3 tac) and Randall Telfer (12 rec, 100 yds, 8.3 avg, 4 TD in 2012, plus 1 BLK FG) return as co-starters once again. The duo, which combined for 41 grabs and 9 touchdowns in 2012, has 82 catches with 18 TDs between them in their careers.

Sophomore Jalen Cope-Fitzpatrick (2 rec, 12 yds, 6.0 avg in 2012) adds young talent to the tight end corps.

Two senior walk-on tight ends—Kevin Downey Jr. and J.T. Kerr—also are available.

"Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer are exceptional tight ends," said Kiffin. "They can block, they can catch, they are very coachable and they do all the little things well. We need to continue to find ways to keep them involved in our offense."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Although starters return at 4 offensive line spots, the loss of 2012 Rimington Award finalist center Khaled Holmes cannot be discounted. To wit: when an injured Holmes had to miss the Stanford game last fall, the Cardinal took advantage with its defensive game plan and upset the Trojans. The 3-year starter starred on the field and classroom as he made the All-Pac-12 first team, Academic All-American second team and Pac-12 All-Academic first team last year.

Tackle Kevin Graf (1 tac in 2012) and guard John Martinez, both seniors, and junior guard Marcus Martin all return after starting the past 2 years. Also back are junior Aundrey Walker and versatile sophomore Max Tuerk, co-starters last fall at tackle. Tuerk, a 2012 Freshman All-American first teamer who even started the Sun Bowl at guard, might be tried in 2013 at all the line positions, including center.

Other returners, all relatively inexperienced, angling to get into the offensive line playing rotation are senior tackle-guard David Garness, junior guard-center Giovanni Di Poalo, sophomore center-guard Cyrus Hobbi and redshirt freshmen tackles Zach Banner (he also is on the USC basketball team), Jordan Simmons (he can also play

Linemen enrolling in the fall as freshmen will be prep All-Americans Nico Falah (St. John Bosco High in Bellflower, Calif.), a tackle, and center Khaliel Rodgers (Eastern Christian Academy in Elkton, Md.).

"We have a lot of returning frontline players on the offensive line, but they need to continue improving," said Kiffin. "Adding another coach to work with this group will go a long ways in achieving that. This spring, we will make a commitment to having the offensive line return to the toughness and form it had 2 years ago. Conducting more physical practices this spring will benefit this group."

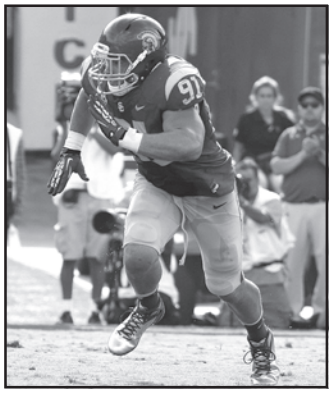
DEFENSE

Seven defensive starters return from 2012: defensive end Morgan Breslin, defensive tackle Leonard Williams, linebackers Hayes Pullard, Dion Bailey and Lamar Dawson, defensive tackle George Uko and safety Josh Shaw (he started at cornerback last year). Other defensive players with career starts are defensive end Devon Kennard, cornerbacks Torin Harris, Anthony Brown and Kevon Seymour, defensive linemen Antwaun Woods and J.R. Tavai and linebacker Anthony Sarao.

Five of USC's 6 top tacklers of 2012 are back, as are its leaders in tackles for loss, sacks, interceptions, deflections, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries. Last season, the Trojans ranked fourth nationally in sacks (3.5) and 11th in tackles for loss (11.5) and were in the national Top 41 in pass efficiency defense (124.0) and scoring defense (24.3). Troy forced 32 turnovers last year, nearly double its 2011 total, including picking off 19 passes (more than twice its 2011 total). However, USC will look in 2013 to shore up a defense that allowed among the most yards and points in school history: the 394.0 total defense average in 2012 was the second highest ever, the 24.3 scoring defense average was fourth highest and the 227.0 pass defense average was the eighth highest.



MORGAN BRESLIN

LEONARD WILLIAMS

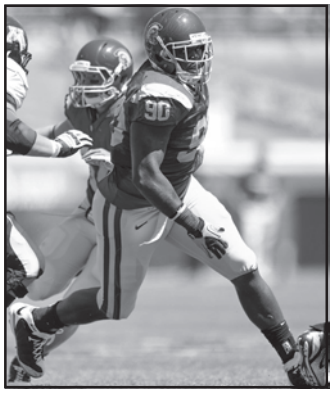
New defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast plans to change USC's defensive scheme from a 4-3 to a 5-2 base (2 outside linebackers on the line bookending 3 down linemen). But he has said this new defense will be adaptable depending on the situation, especially with the various offenses employed in the Pac-12. At times, USC could run a 3-4 or it could even revert back to last year's 4-3 alignment.

"We're looking forward to implementing a new defensive system," said Kiffin. "It will be very multiple up front, able to change from a 3-4 to a 4-3 to a 5-2. We believe this new system, which will utilize an attacking style, will make us a better defense, as we really need to show improvement on this side of the ball. We must be more physical and more aggressive, and we need to do a better job of shutting down opponents and taking the ball away.

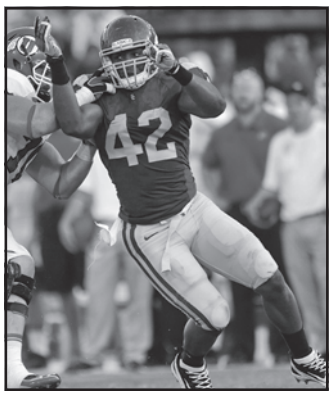
"Our defensive players are excited to get a fresh start with new coaches and a new system."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC lost only 1 defensive lineman of note from 2012—end Wes Horton, who had 117 tackles with 13.5 sacks while starting 32 times in his career—so the depth is good at this position, which will be important as more frontline players will be required this year in the new 5-2 defensive system. USC's defensive linemen have proven particularly adept at pressuring the quarterback, considering 35 of Troy's 45 sacks last fall were by the defensive front.



GEORGE UKO



DEVON KENNARD

Three line starters return from 2012: high-motor senior end Morgan Breslin (62 tac, 19.5 for loss, 13 sack, 1 FR, 1 FF, 4 dfl in 2012), dominating sophomore tackle Leonard Williams (64 tac, 13. 5 for loss, 8 sacks, 2 FR, 1 int, 4 dfl in 2012) and junior tackle George Uko (31 tac, 9 for loss, 5 sack, 1 FR for TD, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2012). Breslin, in his first year at USC after transferring from a junior college, was a Hendricks Award finalist last year. He was fifth nationally in sacks (1.0) and 15th in tackles for loss (1.5) in 2012. His sacks and tackles for loss totals were the most at USC since 2003. Williams was a 2012 Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year.

Also back after sitting out last season with a chest injury is senior end Devon Kennard, who notched 135 tackles while making 18 starts in his first 3 years at USC.

There are other experienced linemen who can be called on: senior end Kevin Greene (5 tac, 2 for loss, 2 sack, 2 FF, 1 FR in 2012), junior tackle-end J.R. Tavai (17 tac, 2.5 loss, 1 dfl in 2012), sophomore tackle Antwaun Woods (16 tac, 4.5 for loss, 3 sack in 2012), who started the first 4 games of 2012, and soph end Greg Townsend Jr. (15 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1.5 sack in 2012). Tavai (broken foot in the bowl game) and Townsend (post-season kneecap cartilage surgery) could be slowed in 2013 spring practice while coming back from injuries.

Other less-tested linemen in the mix are sophomores Charles Burks, an end, and tackle Cody Temple (he likely will be slowed during 2013 spring practice while recovering from 2012 ankle surgery), as well as redshirt freshman end Jabari Ruffin. There there is a pair of walk-on ends who saw limited action last year: senior Michael Arakelian and sophomore Jeff Miller (he will miss 2013 spring practice recovering from 2012 surgery on an ankle fracture).

Looking to make an immediate impact on the line is freshman tackle Kenny Bigelow (Eastern Christian Academy of Elkton, Md.), a prep All-American who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this spring.

"We have a lot of veteran players coming back up front, some real impact players like Morgan Breslin and Leonard Williams," said Kiffin. "It will be crucial to build our depth on the defensive line and develop a number of players who we can count on to come through for us."

LINEBACKERS

Linebacker figures to be a position of strength for USC in 2013, as all 3 starters from the past 2 seasons return. But with the new 5-2 defensive alignment that will be implemented this fall, it is possible some of the linebackers will move up and play on the perimeter of the defensive line in hybrid defensive end/outside linebacker roles.

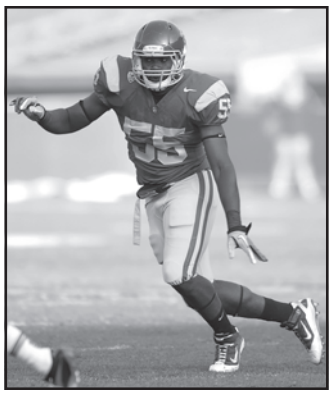
The trio of returning starters, all juniors, are Hayes Pullard (107 tac, 8 for loss, 2 sack, 1 int for TD, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2012), Dion Bailey (80 tac, 8 for loss, 1 sack, 4 int, 5 dfl, 1 FF in 2012) and Lamar Dawson (77 tac, 2 for loss, 1 FF, 2 dfl, 2 int in 2012). Combined, they have made 451 tackles in their careers. Last fall, Pullard (along with safety T.J. McDonald) became the first Trojan since 2004 with at least 100 stops in a season. Bailey, whose 4 interceptions in 2012 were second most in the nation by a linebacker, will sit out 2013 spring practice while recovering from post-season shoulder surgery.

Other experienced linebackers aiming to make a contribution are sophomore Anthony Sarao (40 tac, 4 for loss, 3 sack, 1 FR, 1 dfl in 2012), seniors Marquis Simmons (9 tac in 2012) and Simione Vehikite (9 tac in 2012) and redshirt freshman Scott Starr (2 tac in 2012), who will miss 2013 spring drills after having 2012 neck surgery that allowed him to redshirt last fall despite seeing action in 3 early-season games.

Then there are 4 walk-on linebackers available: seniors Will Andrew (7 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 FR in 2012), Kyle Yatabe and Julian Coleman and redshirt freshman Nick Schlossberg.

DION BAILEY

HAYES PULLARD



LAMAR DAWSON

Joining the linebacker corps in the fall as freshmen will be prep All-Americans Michael Hutchings (De La Salle High in Concord, Calif.), who was the 2012 Cal-Hi Sports' California Mr. Football, and Quinton Powell (Mainland High in Daytona Beach, Calif.).

"This is another very veteran group for us," said Kiffin. "All 3 returning starters are high-quality, experienced linebackers. Like elsewhere on the team, we need to shore up our depth here because we will ask a lot of the linebackers in our new defensive scheme."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

USC's secondary will have a completely new look to it, as a trio of 3-year starters have departed and another starter has switched positions.

Gone are hard-hitting 2011 All-American safety T.J. McDonald, who had 275 career tackles and 8 interceptions (his team-best 112 tackles last year were the most by a Trojan since 2001), lockdown cornerback Nickell Robey, who left early for the NFL after making 163 tackles, 7 interceptions and 17 deflections in his career (his 3 scoring interception returns tied the USC career record) and reliable safety Jawanza Starling.

Junior Josh Shaw (30 tac, 2 for loss, 2 int, 6 dfl in 2012), who transferred to USC last fall from Florida as a safety but was moved midseason to cornerback and started the final 7 games there, has been shifted back to safety for 2013.

He'll battle for a starting job with seniors Demetrius Wright (9 tac, 0.5 for loss in 2012) and Gerald Bowman (11 tac, 1 int in 2012). Also in the safety mix are walk-ons John Auran, a senior, and redshirt freshmen Rob Dooley and Elijah Steen.

JOSH SHAW

And consideration will be given to freshman safety Su'a Cravens (Vista Murrieta High in Murrieta, Calif.), a prep All-American who was the 2012 USA Today Defensive National Player of the Year and the Gatorade California Player of the Year. He graduated a semester early from high school in order to enroll at USC for this spring semester.

Contesting for starting roles at cornerback will be some experienced veterans along with some youngsters. Senior Torin Harris (30 tac, 1 for loss, 6 dfl in 2012) has 9 career starts at corner, including 5 mid-season starts last year. He entered the 2012 lineup after junior Anthony Brown (18 tac, 2 dfl, 1 BLK P in 2012, plus 1 PR, 21 yds, 21.0 avg, 1 TD) started the first 2 games. Then there are sophomores Kevon Seymour (5 tac in 2012) and Ryan Henderson (5 tac in 2012) and redshirt freshman Devian Shelton, as well as walk-on soph Ryan Dillard (3 tac in 2012).

Two prep All-Americans who enrolled at USC this spring after graduating from high school a semester early will also battle for time at cornerback: Leon McQuay III (Armwood High in Seffner, Fla.) and Chris Hawkins (Rancho Cucamonga High in Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.).

"By far, the secondary faces the biggest overhaul on our team as we look for 4 new starters," said Kiffin. "It's not comforting when you lose players the caliber of T.J. McDonald and Nickell Robey, but we must find a way to replace them. We need to improve our play in the secondary and we need to do that with all new starters. There will be a spirited battle throughout spring among all our defensive backs to earn places in the lineup and it will be exciting to watch that competition play out."

SPECIAL TEAMS

USC's placekicker (Andre Heidari), snapper (Peter McBride), holder (Cody Kessler) and kickoff returners (Marqise Lee, Nelson Agholor) are back from 2012. But the Trojans will be fielding a new punter and punt returner.

USC continued in 2012 its recent penchant for making big plays on special teams (Troy had 4 blocks, including 1 returned for a TD, and a scoring kickoff return last fall). The Trojans ranked fourth nationally in kickoff returns (26.4) and 29th in net punting (38.6) last year. Only 14 of USC's 45 punts were returned in 2012 and none of the punts were touchbacks.

"Good special teams play has always been an area of emphasis in our program," said Kiffin. "The amount of time we spend preparing our special teams pays off with big plays that often turn into game changers.

"Marqise Lee gives us a strong return game. Opponents know he can score every time he touches the ball. We will open up the placekicking competition in hopes of getting better production there. And we hope that we can compensate for the loss of Kyle Negrete, whose ability to punt to a spot took the punt return game away from our opponents the past 2 years."

PUNTERS

Sophomore Kris Albarado, who has yet to punt at USC, will take over for Kyle Negrete, who handled the punting duties the past 2 seasons. Negrete, known as an accurate directional punter, averaged 41.5 yards per boot in his career and never had a touchback among his 83 punts. He pinned opponents within the 20-yard line 39 times.

PLACEKICKERS

Junior Andre Heidari (39-of-41 PAT, 10-of-16 FG in 2012) has been USC's placekicker the past 2 seasons, hitting 25 field goals. After a Freshman All-American and All-Pac-12 first team showing in 2011 when he nailed 15-of-17 field goals, he struggled with his accuracy somewhat in 2012, especially after missing 2 early-season games following arthroscopic knee surgery.

ANDRE HEIDARI

When Heidari was sidelined last fall, sophomore walk-on Alex Wood (8-of-8 PAT in 2012) filled in admirably. Wood will push Heidari for the placekicking job in 2013.

Junior Craig McMahon (3 tac in 2012) handled the kickoff duty in 2012 and could do so again in 2013.

SNAPPERS

Sophomore Peter McBride (1 tac in 2012) returns after handling the long snapping duties all of last year and the short snapping role up until late last season.

HOLDERS

Sophomore quarterback Cody Kessler returns after taking over the holding duties from quarterback Matt Barkley in the second half of 2012.

RETURNERS

Junior Marqise Lee (30 KOR, 856 yds, 28.5 avg, 1 TD in 2012) is back as one of the most feared kickoff returners in the country. He was eighth nationally in kickoff returns (28.5) last fall. He is eighth on USC's career kickoff return list (1,141 yards) and has 2 scoring runbacks so far. Sophomore wide receiver Nelson Agholor (5 KOR, 121 yds, 24.2 avg in 2012) joined Lee returning kicks last year and could do so again in 2013.

A new punt returner must be found with the departure of wide receiver Robert Woods and cornerback Nickell Robey, who more-than-capably shared that duty the last 2 years.

2013 USC FOOTBALL PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

(Class years are listed athletically/ academically, with "*" indicating player who has used up redshirt year.)

(15) NELSON AGHOLOR

Wide Receiver, 6-1, 185, So./So.
Tampa, FL (Berkeley Prep HS)

2013: Agholor, who has already shown he has a promising future, will compete to start at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Agholor served as a key backup wide receiver, returned kickoffs and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in all 13 games (he even started against Arizona State, UCLA and Georgia Tech), he had 19 catches for 340 yards (17.9 avg.) with 2 TDs, returned 5 kickoffs for 121 yards (24.2 avg.), had a 7-yard rush and made 4 tackles and recovered a fumble. He made the 2012 Scout.com Freshman All-American second team.

He had a 6-yard catch against Hawaii, then had 3 catches for 77 yards (including a 49-yarder) and 2 tackles at Stanford. He had a 15-yard reception against California, a 19-yard kickoff return at Utah, returned 2 kickoffs for 50 yards at Washington and had 2 catches for 10 yards, a 7-yard run and returned a kickoff 37 yards against Colorado. He had a catch for minus 1 yard at Arizona, then 6 catches for a game-high 162 yards, with a 76-yard TD, plus a 15-yard kickoff return against Oregon. He had 2 catches for 22 yards and 2 tackles against Arizona State and had 3 catches for 49 yards, with a 33-yard TD, at UCLA. He had a fumble recovery on kickoff coverage against Georgia Tech.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, ESPNU.com All-American second team, SI.com All-American honorable mention, Super Prep Elite 50, Sporting News Top 125, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, ESPNU 150, Super Prep All-Dixie, Prep Star All-Southeast and Guy Toph Trophy recipient (as the top player in Hillsborough County) as a senior running back, wide receiver, cornerback and safety at Berkeley Prep High in Tampa (Fla.). He had 212 carries for 1,983 yards (9.4 avg.) with 28 TDs and 10 receptions for 117 yards (11.7 avg.) with 2 TDs on offense in 2011 and 35 tackles and 3 interceptions on defense, plus he returned 8 punts for a 32.0 average.

As a junior in 2010, he had 1,440 yards on offense, 3 interceptions on defense and 323 return yards as he made Max Preps Junior All-American second team, All-State, Tampa Tribune All-Hillsborough County and All-Suncoast League.

As a sophomore in 2009, he made All-State as he ran for 970 yards with 15 TDs and had 14 receptions for 239 yards (17.1 avg.) with 3 TDs on offense and 31 tackles and 4 interceptions on defense.

As a 2008 freshman, he had 1,400 all-purpose yards and 5 interceptions. In his career, he had 4,732 rushing yards, 921 receiving yards, 12 interceptions and 8 kickoff returns for TDs.

He also played basketball at Berkeley, where he averaged 12.8 points, 4.8 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 2.3 steals as a senior.

PERSONAL: He was born in Nigeria. His father, Felix, played soccer in Nigeria.

(35) KRIS ALBARADO

Punter, 5-10, 200, So.*/Jr.
Lake Charles, LA (St. Louis HS)

2013: Although untested, Albarado is in line to serve as USC's punter as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Albarado was the backup punter as a redshirt freshman in 2012, but did not see any action.

2011: Albarado redshirted as a freshman punter in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team and All-State 4A as a senior punter at St. Louis High in Lake Charles (La.). He averaged 45.3 yards on his 24 punts (with a long of 65 yards) and put 8 punts within the 20-yard line in 2010.

As a junior in 2009, he averaged 41.8 yards on his 38 punts, with 19 punts within the 20.

He averaged 40.7 yards on his 37 punts (with 8 within the 20) as a sophomore in 2008.

(37) JAVORIUS ALLEN

Tailback, 6-1, 210, So.*/Jr.
Tallahassee, FL (Lincoln HS)

2013: Allen will battle to get into the tailback playing rotation as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Allen was a reserve tailback as a redshirt freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 3 games (Syracuse, California, Colorado), he had 6 carries for 32 yards (5.3 avg.). He had 2 carries each against Syracuse (6 yards), California (12 yards) and Colorado (14 yards). He missed the Utah game because of a death in his family.

2011: Allen redshirted as a freshman tailback in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included ESPNU150, Super Prep All-Dixie and Prep Star All-Southeast as a senior running back at Lincoln High in Tallahassee (Fla.). He ran for more than 1,500 yards in 2010. Lincoln won the 2010 Florida state Class 4A title.

He missed his 2009 junior season with an injury.

As a sophomore in 2008, he rushed for 1,044 yards on 162 carries (6.4 avg.) with 10 TDs. Lincoln played in the Florida state Class 4A championship game.

He also long jumped at Lincoln, with a best of 22-9 1/2.

PERSONAL: His nickname is Buck.

(29) CHRIS HAWKINS

Cornerback, 6-0, 170, Fr./Fr.
Rancho Cucamonga, CA
(Rancho Cucamonga HS)

2013: Hawkins, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, will battle to get into the playing rotation at cornerback as a first-year freshman in 2013.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and All-CIF Inland Division as a senior cornerback and wide receiver in 2012 at Rancho Cucamonga (Calif.) High, which went 10-3. He had 56 tackles, 2 interceptions, 6 deflections, 1 forced fumble and 1 blocked field goal on defense in 2012 and 14 receptions for 193 yards (13.8 avg.) with 2 TDs on offense.

As a 2011 junior, he made All-CIF Inland Division as he had 32 tackles and 2 interceptions. Rancho Cucamonga went 11-2 in 2011. Current Trojan Randall Telfer also prepped at Rancho Cucamonga.

(48) ANDRE HEIDARI

Placekicker, 5-10, 200, Jr./Jr.
Bakersfield, CA (Stockdale HS)

CAREER: He has hit 25-of-33 field goals and 89-of-91 PATs in his career.

2013: Heidari will look to fend off the competition to be USC's placekicker for a third season as a junior in 2013.

2012: Heidari was USC's placekicker for his second year as a sophomore in 2012 and also spent part of the year handling kickoffs. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 11 games (all but Syracuse and Stanford), he hit 10-of-16 field goals and 39-of-41 PATs. Of his 41 kickoffs in 2012, 13 were touchbacks and 12 others pinned opponents within the 20-yard line. He made 2012 All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

Against Hawaii, Heidari hit a 28-yard field goal, all 4 of his PATs and his kickoff pinned the Warriors within the 20, but he hurt his knee against Hawaii and had arthroscopic surgery, which sidelined him the next 2 games (Syracuse and Stanford). He returned against California and nailed both of his field goals (40 and 41 yards) and all 3 of his PATs. At Utah, he hit all 5 of his PATs and a 32-yard field goal (but missed from 40 and 44 yards) and also kicked off twice (both pinned the Utes within the 20). He hit all 3 of his PATs and was 1-of-2 on field goals (making a 23-yarder) at Washington. Against Colorado, he hit a 37-yard field goal and 5 of his 6 PATs as well as kicking off 5 times (pinning CU within the 20 once and getting 2 touchbacks). He hit all 4 of his PATs and had touchbacks on 5 of his 6 kickoffs at Arizona. Against Oregon, he hit a 39-yard field goal and all 6 of his PATs and 4 of his 9 kickoffs were touchbacks (another 2 pinned the Ducks within the 20. Against Arizona State, he hit all 5 of his PATs and a 26-yard field goal and had a touchback among his 7 kickoffs (another pinned the Sun Devils within the 20). At UCLA, he hit 2-of-3 PATS but missed both of his field goals (1 was blocked) and 3 of his 5 kickoffs pinned the Bruins within the 20. Against Notre Dame, Heidheari hit both of his field goal attempts (39 and 21 yards), his PAT and 1 of his 4 kickoffs pinned the Irish within the 20. Against Georgia Tech, he hit a PAT but missed a 38-yard field goal and 1 of his 2 kickoffs pinned the Yellow Jackets within the 20, while the other was a touchback.

2011: Heidari, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2011 after graduating a semester early from high school, stepped in as USC's placekicker as a freshman in 2011 and did an outstanding job. Overall while appearing in all 12 games, he hit 15-of 17 field goals and all 50 of his PAT tries, plus he made 4 tackles. His 88.2% field goal percentage was third in the nation among kickers with at least 10 made field goals (and the best among freshmen kickers). He made 9 consecutive field goals before a miss at Notre Dame and was 4-of-5 on field goals of at least 40 yards in 2011 (with a 50-yarder). Of his 76 kickoffs in 2011, 25 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line (including 10 touchbacks). He was one of 20 semifinalists for the 2011 Groza Award. He made the 2011 CBSSports.com, CollegeFootball News.com and Phil Steele Freshman All-American first team and YahooSports.com Freshman All-American second team. He made 2011 SI.com All-American honorable mention. He made the 2011 All-Pac-12 first team. He made the 2011 ESPN.com, CBSSports.com and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team.

He hit his only PAT attempt against Minnesota, then hit a 47-yard field goal (he had another 47-yarder negated by penalty) and both of his PATs against Utah. Against Syracuse, he hit all 5 of his PATs, was 1-of-2 on field goals (he made a 26-yarder) and 3 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Orange within the 20. At Arizona State, he hit all 3 of his field goals (41, 29 and 33 yards) and his only PAT and he also pinned the Sun Devils within the 20 on 3 of his 6 kickoffs (with 2 touchbacks). Against Arizona, he hit both of his field goal tries (46 and 31 yards) and all 6 of his PATs and also pinned the Wildcats within the 20 on 3 of his 8 kickoffs (with 2 touchbacks). At California, he hit all 3 of his field goals (39, 29 and 23 yards) and all 3 of his PATs and also pinned the Bears twice within the 20 (with a touchback) on his 7 kickoffs. At Notre Dame, he hit all 4 of his PATs, made a 25-yard field goal (he missed a 32-yarder despite kicking with a bruised ankle) and 1 of his 4 kickoffs pinned the Irish within the 20. Against Stanford, he hit both of his field goals (22 and 50 yards, the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez's 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 Sun Bowl) and all 6 of his PATs, plus 2 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Cardinal within the 20. At Colorado, he hit all 6 of his PATs and 4 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Buffaloes within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks). Against Washington, he hit all 5 of his PATs and a 30-yard field goal and 2 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Huskies within the 20. He hit his only field goal try (a 26-yarder) and all 5 of his PATS, plus 1 of his 7 kickoffs was a touchback and he made a tackle at Oregon. Against UCLA, he hit all 6 of his PATs and 4 of his 8 kickoffs pinned the Bruins within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks).

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included UnderArmour All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team as a 2010 senior placekicker and punter at Stockdale High in Bakersfield (Calif.). He kicked 8 field goals and 17 PATS, had touchbacks on 53 of his 65 kickoffs and averaged 38.4 yards punting in 2010.

As a 2009 junior, 59 of his 70 kickoffs were touchbacks and 20 of his punts pinned opponents within the 20-yard line (with a long of 63 yards) as he made the All-Southwest Yosemite League second team.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC.

(69) CYRUS HOBBI

Center-Offensive Guard, 6-3, 285, So*./Jr.
Scottsdale, AZ (Saguaro HS)

2013: Hobbi will compete to get into the playing rotation at either center or offensive guard as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Hobbi was a backup center and offensive guard as a redshirt freshman in 2012. He appeared in 7 games (Hawaii, Syracuse, Stanford, California, Utah, Colorado, Arizona) and even started at Stanford.

2011: Hobbi redshirted as a freshman offensive guard and center in 2011, his first year at USC. He missed the Utah and Syracuse games with an arm injury. He won USC's Offensive Service Team Player of the Year Award.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, UnderArmour All-American, ESPNU 150, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-State and All-Region 4A as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Saguaro High in Scottsdale (Ariz.). Saguaro won the Arizona state 4A-1 title for the fourth time in 5 years in 2010.

As a junior in 2009, he made All-State and All-Region 4A.

As a sophomore in 2008, he was All-Region.

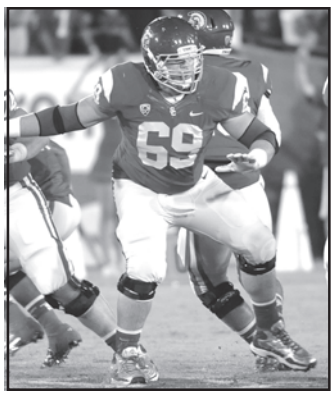
PERSONAL: He is a theater major at USC with a B- average (2.86 GPA). He and 15 of his USC teammates spent 5 days in Haiti in the spring of 2012 building homes and assisting those in need.



CYRUS HOBBI

(42) DEVON KENNARD

Defensive End, 6-3, 260, Sr.*/Sr.
Phoenix, AZ (Desert Vista HS)

CAREER: He has 135 career tackles, including 13 for losses (with 4 sacks). He has 18 career starts.

2013: Kennard, who has started at defensive end and linebacker earlier in his career, returns after missing 2012 with an injury and will battle to start again at end as a senior in 2013.

2012: Kennard was slated to start at defensive end as a senior in 2012, but he tore a chest muscle just before the season started and had surgery, which sidelined him for all of 2012 and allowed him to redshirt.

2011: Kennard started 5 games (Utah, Arizona State, California, Colorado, Oregon) at defensive end as a junior in 2011 and rotated into the action frequently in the other 7 games. After starting at middle linebacker in 2010, he was moved back to defensive end, his original position, following 2011 spring drills. Overall in 2011 while appearing in 12 games, he had 29 tackles, including 4 for losses (with 2 sacks, one which resulted in a safety). He missed 2011 spring practice while recuperating from a 2010 hip injury. He had 5 tackles (with a sack) against Stanford, 4 tackles against Minnesota and Arizona and 3 tackles against Syracuse and Arizona State. His sack against Washington resulted in a safety.

2010: Kennard started USC's first 8 games at middle linebacker as a sophomore in 2010 and was an often-used backup the rest of the season. Overall in 2010 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 72 tackles, including 7 for losses (with 2 sacks), plus 1 interception and 1 deflection. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery for torn cartilage in his hip. He had surgery on his left thumb prior to 2010 spring practice.

He had 2 tackles (with a sack) at Hawaii, then 7 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against Virginia, 4 tackles at Minnesota and a game-high 8 tackles against Washington State. He had 10 tackles (1 for a loss) against Washington, 7 tackles against Stanford and 6 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection against California. He had a game-high 13 tackles (1.5 for losses) against Oregon, 4 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against Arizona State and 8 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss (with a sack), against Oregon State. He added 3 tackles and an interception (to set up a USC field goal) against Notre Dame.

2009: Kennard began his 2009 first-year freshman season as a backup defensive end, but by midseason was seeing key action primarily in pass rushing situations (he even started there at Arizona State). He then was moved to strongside linebacker for USC's final 4 games and started those contests. Overall in 2009 while appearing in all 12 games (starting 5 times), he had 34 tackles, including 2 for losses, plus 3 deflections, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble. He made the 2009 ESPN.com Pac-10 All-Freshman first team and Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team. He won USC's John McKay Award.

He had 5 tackles (1.5 for a loss) against San Jose State, then 1 tackle at Ohio State and 3 tackles (0.5 for a loss) while forcing and recovering a fumble that led to a USC TD against Washington State. He added 1 tackle at Notre Dame, a deflection against Oregon State and 2 tackles at Oregon and Arizona State. He then started at strongside linebacker, getting 4 tackles against Stanford, 6 tackles and a deflection against UCLA and 8 tackles against Arizona. He had 2 tackles and a deflection against Boston College.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2008 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, ESPN 150, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, Sporting News Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team and Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 as a senior defensive end at Desert Vista High in Phoenix (Ariz.). He played in only 3 early games in 2008 before tearing knee ligaments, which sidelined him the rest of the season.

As a junior in 2007, he made Rivals.com Junior All-American first team as he had 111 tackles and 24 sacks. Desert Vista played in the 2007 Arizona state 5-A championship game.

As a sophomore in 2006, he made All-Region while making 81 tackles and 7 sacks.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in communication at USC in the spring of 2012 and has begun work on a master's degree in communication management. He has a B average (3.18 GPA). He made the 2011 Pac-12 All-Academic second team and 2010 Pac-10 All-Academic second team. He and 15 of his USC teammates spent 5 days in Haiti in the spring of 2012 building homes and assisting those in need. He was selected to be one of USC's representatives at the 2011 APPLE (Athletic Prevention Programming and Leadership Education) Conference in Austin, Tex., designed to promote student-athlete health and wellness. His father, Derek, was an All-American offensive lineman at Nevada (lettering from 1981 to 1983) who then played 2 years in the USFL (1984-85 with the Los Angeles Express) and 11 seasons in the NFL (1986-90 with the St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals, 1991-93 with the New Orleans Saints and 1994-96 with the Dallas Cowboys), including on the 1995 Cowboys' team that won the Super Bowl. His brother, Derek Jr., was a 4-year (2000-03) football letterman at Nevada.

(6) CODY KESSLER

Quarterback, 6-1, 215, So.*/Jr.
Bakersfield, CA (Centennial HS)

2013: The high-energy Kessler will compete to start at quarterback as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Kessler was a backup quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2012 and also was the holder on all placekicks (beginning with the Utah game). Overall in 2012 while appearing in 10 games (all but Syracuse, Stanford, California), he was 2-of-2 (100.0%) for 9 yards. In his only 2 games seeing action at quarterback, he took the game's final snap against Hawaii and hit both of his passes for 9 yards late in the Colorado game.

2011: Kessler, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2011 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2011, his first year at USC. He served as the backup quarterback.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Bakersfield California All-Bakersfield Player of the Year and All-Yosemite League Offensive MVP as a senior quarterback at Centennial High in Bakersfield (Calif.). He completed 175-of-251 (69.7%) of his passes for 2,831 yards and 36 TDs with just 2 interceptions in 2010 and rushed for 324 yards on 75 carries (4.3 avg.) with 8 TDs. He also averaged 36.4 yards on 32 punts in 2010, with a 13 pinning opponents within the 20-yard line and a long of 60 yards. Centennial was 10-2 in 2010.

As a 2009 junior, he was named Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and Bakersfield Californian Area Player of the Year as he completed 188-of-312 passes (60.3%) for 2,195 yards with 14 TDs and 6 interceptions and also ran for 12 TDs. Centennial was the 2009 CIF Central Section runnerup.

As a sophomore in 2008, he completed 133-of-288 passes (63.6%) for 1,878 yards with 10 TDs and 7 interceptions and he also ran for 373 yards with 13 TDs.

CODY KESSLER

He also played basketball at Centennial, where he averaged 29.5 points, 11 rebounds and 5 assists and was named the Bakersfield Area Player of the Year (becoming the first player to be so honored in both football and basketball).

PERSONAL: He and 15 of his USC teammates spent 5 days in Haiti in the spring of 2012 building homes and assisting those in need.

(9) MARQISE LEE

Wide Receiver, 6-0, 195, Jr./Jr.
Inglewood, CA (Serra HS)

CAREER: He has 191 catches for 2,864 yards (15.0 avg.) with 25 TDs in his career, along with 40 kickoff returns for 1,141 yards (28.5 avg.) with 2 TDs, 18 carries for 139 yards (7.7 avg.) and 3 tackles. He is sixth on USC's career pass catching list (191 receptions, 22nd on Pac-12 list) and eighth on USC's career kickoff return list (1,141 yards). His 2,864 career receiving yards are USC records for most in freshman and sophomore seasons and over 2 consecutive seasons, and are seventh most in USC history (20th on the Pac-12 list). His 25 career TD catches is fourth most at USC (tied for 14th on the Pac-12 career list). He has 12 career 100-yard receiving games (with a school-record tying twice with 200 yards). He has a school-record 8 career games with double digit receptions and 6 career contests with multiple TDs. He has had at least 8 receptions in 14 games in his career, including 9 in a row at one point (last 4 of 2011, first 5 of 2012). He has had 20 receiving TDs in the past 17 games, with at least 1 in 12 of those contests. His pair of 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2011 and 2012) equals a school record. He has 2 career scoring kickoff returns. He has 4,144 career all-purpose yards on 249 plays (16.6 avg.) with 27 TDs.

2013: The exciting Lee, who also competes on USC's track team, returns for his third season as a record-setting starting wide receiver and kickoff returner as a junior in 2013. The 2012 consensus All-American and reigning Biletnikoff Award winner is a leading candidate for the 2013 Heisman Trophy.

2012: Lee started for his second season at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2012 and again returned kicks. Overall in 2012 while starting all 13 games, he caught 118 passes for 1,721 yards (14.6 avg.) with 14 TDs, returned 30 kickoffs for 856 yards (28.5 avg.) with 1 TD, had 13 carries for 106 yards (8.2 avg.) and made 2 tackles.

He was second nationally in receptions (9.1, first in Pac-12) and receiving yards (132.4), third in all-purpose yards (206.4, first in Pac-12) and eighth in kickoff returns (28.5, first in Pac-12). He set or tied 14 USC individual records in 2012 (5 are Pac-12 marks) and 4 other school combination records that he set with Robert Woods (1 is an NCAA mark). His 118 receptions and 1,721 receiving yards were Pac-12 season records. His 118 receptions in 2012 were most in the nation, his 1,721 receiving yards were second most in the nation, his 14 TD catches were tied for third most and his 2,683 all-purpose yards were third most. He averaged 16.7 yards every time he touched the ball in 2012. The average length of his 15 TDs in 2012 was 40.8 yards. He had 16 plays of 40-plus yards in 2012 (including 11 of 50-plus yards and 7 of 70-plus yards). More than half of his 2012 receptions (63 of 118, 53.4%) were for first downs. His 38.2% of USC's team all-purpose yardage in 2012 was more than any Heisman-winning wide receiver had (Nebraska's Johnny Rodgers had 30.4% in 1972, Notre Dame's Tim Brown had 35.0% in 1987, Michigan's Desmond Howard had 30.7% in 1991 and Michigan's Charles Woodson had 10.5% in 1997), as well as more than the last non-quarterback Heisman winner (Alabama's Mark Ingram had 27.1% in 2009). He had 8 100-yard receiving games in 2012. He had a 3-game stretch in 2012 (Arizona, Oregon, Arizona State) with 663 receiving yards that is the most prolific in USC history (he had other 3-game stretches with 608 and 605 receiving yards). He had a school-record 7 games with double digit receptions in 2012.

He won the 2012 Biletnikoff Award, USC's first-ever winner, and the Paul Warfield Award. He was a 2012 unanimous All-American first team pick, selected by AP, American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers, Walter Camp, Sporting News, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSSports.com, FOXSportsNext.com, Phil Steele and Pro Football Weekly. He was the College Football Performance Awards Wide Receiver of the Year and CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American Offensive Player of the Year. He was the 2012 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year, was the only unanimous pick on the All-Pac-12 first team and also made the All-Pac-12 second team as a return specialist. He finished fourth in the voting for the 2012 Heisman Trophy. He was one of 4 finalists for the 2012 Hornung Award, 5 finalists for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and 16 semifinalists for the Maxwell Award. He also was the CollegeFootballNews.com All-Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and made the ESPN.com, CBSSports.com and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first teams. He made the 2012 Sporting News and Phil Steele's Mid-Season All-American first teams. He was voted by his teammates as USC's MVP and he also was named the Offensive Perimeter Player of the Year and won the John McKay Award (competitive spirit).

He had 297 all-purpose yards against Hawaii, including 197 on 10 receptions (with 8 for 176 yards in the first half), as he turned a hitch route into a career-long 75-yard TD on the game's first play and then he returned a kickoff 100 yards for a score on USC's first possession of the second half to become just the second Trojan with a 100-yard scoring kickoff return (joining Anthony Davis, who did so twice in 1974), earning Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week, College Football Performance Awards National All-Purpose Performer of the Week, College Football Performance Awards National Kickoff Returner of the Week and Paul Hornung Award Weekly Honor Roll. He had 11 catches for 66 yards with a school record-tying 3 TDs at Syracuse (joining with Robert Woods, who had 10 catches, to become for the second time the only USC duo with at least 10 catches in a game), and he also had a 23-yard reverse run and returned 3 kickoffs for 40 yards. He had 8 catches for 100 yards and 3 kickoff returns for 59 yards at Stanford, then caught 11 passes for 94 yards with 2 TDs (11 and 3 yards) and returned 2 kickoffs for 41 yards against California. He had a game-best 12 receptions for 192 yards, with a career-long 83-yard TD, and added an 11-yard rush at Utah to earn College Football Performance Awards National Wide Receiver of the Week, then added 2 receptions for 32 yards and returned a kickoff 24 yards at Washington. He caught 6 passes for 103 yards (including a 55-yard TD on the game's second play), had a 9-yard run and returned 2 kickoffs for 39 yards against Colorado. At Arizona, he had a Pac-12 record 345 receiving yards (fifth most in NCAA history) on 16 catches (1 shy of the USC record and third most in Pac-12 history) with 2 TDs (49 and 44 yards), including 12 grabs for 255 yards in the first half, and he had 469 all-purpose yards (second most recognized in NCAA history) as he added 123 yards on 3 kickoff returns (including a 72-yarder) and a 1-yard rush (plus he caught a 2-point conversion pass) to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week, College Football Performance Awards National Wide Receiver of the Week and Paul Hornung Award Weekly Honor Roll (6 of his catches were for at least 28 yards: 57, 50, 49, 44, 32 and 28 yards); he joined with Woods (9 catches for 93 yards) to set a USC record for most receiving yards in a game by 2 players (438) and tying a USC record for most receptions in a game by 2 players (25). He had 408 all-purpose yards (the 16th most in NCAA history), including a Pac-12 record 251 yards on a school-record 8 kickoff returns (with an 82-yarder) and 157 yards with 2 TDs (with a 75-yarder) on 12 receptions to earn College Football Performance Awards National All-Purpose Performer of the Week and Paul Hornung Award Weekly Honor Roll, while Woods had 6 catches for 71 yards with a TD. He had 227 all-purpose yards—161 on 10 catches (with an 80-yard TD) and 66 on 6 rushes mainly out of the Wildcat formation (including a career-long 38 yard end-around in which he reversed his field) against Arizona State—plus he played safety on defense for a play (causing an ASU delay of game penalty), but he did not return a kickoff because the Sun Devils pooched their kickoffs. At UCLA, he had 9 catches for 158 yards (both game highs) with a 14-yard TD, a 27-yard kickoff return and a rush for minus 3 yards as he set the Pac-12 season receiving yardage record. Against Notre Dame, he had 5 catches for 75 yards as he set the Pac-12 season receptions record, 4 kickoff returns for 98 yards, 2 tackles and a run for minus 1 yard. Against Georgia Tech, he had 6 catches for 41 yards, 2 kickoff returns for 54 yards and a rush for no yards.

MARQISE LEE

2011: Lee emerged as a starting wide receiver as a freshman in 2011, his first year at USC, and had an all-star season. Overall in 2011 while starting 8 games (all but Syracuse, Arizona, Notre Dame, Oregon) and appearing in all 12 games, he had 73 catches for 1,143 yards (15.7 avg.) with 11 TDs, plus he had 5 carries for 33 yards (6.6 avg.) and 10 kickoff returns for 285 yards (28.5 avg.) with 1 TD. He also made a tackle. He was 15th nationally in receiving yards (95.3, fifth in Pac-12). His 11 TD catches were the most nationally by a freshman in 2011. Ten of his 11 TD catches in 2011 were at least 24 yards. His 73 receptions in 2011 were seventh on the USC season pass catching list (the second most by a Trojan freshman, behind Mike Williams' 81 in 2002). He had 4 100-yard receiving games in 2011. He and teammate Robert Woods each had at least 1,000 receiving yards in 2011, the fourth time that a pair of Trojans did that. Lee's and Woods' combined receptions (184) and receiving yards (2,435) in 2011 were the most by a pair of Trojans in a season. He made the 2011 Football Writers, Sporting News, CBSSports.com, CollegeFootballNews.com, FoxSportsNext.com, YahooSports.com and Phil Steele Freshman All-American first team. He was named the 2011 Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Co-Player of the Year and also made the All-Pac-12 second team. He was the 2011 CollegeFootballNews.com Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and CBSSports.com Pac-12 Co-Freshman of the Year. He made 2011 SI.com All-American honorable mention. He made the 2011 Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team.

He had 5 catches for 32 yards against Minnesota, then had 2 catches for 34 yards and an 8-yard run off a reverse against Utah and 2 receptions for 63 yards (with a 43-yard TD) against Syracuse. He had 4 catches for 50 yards (with a 24-yard TD) and had an 8-yard run on a reverse at Arizona State, then against Arizona had 8 catches for 144 yards (both career highs) with a 38-yard TD (Woods' and Lee's 399 combined receiving yardage was the most in a game by a USC duo ever) and he also had a 26-yard kickoff return. He had 4 catches for 81 yards (including a 39-yard TD) before hurting his shoulder at California. He then had 2 catches for 36 yards at Notre Dame, 7 receptions for 94 yards with a 28-yard TD against Stanford and 9 catches for 124 yards and 2 TDs (33 and 25 yards) at Colorado, where he also had 2 runs for 13 yards and a 14-yard kickoff return. He had 9 receptions for 74 yards, with a 9-yard TD, and an 88-yard TD kickoff return against Washington to earn College Football Performance Awards National Kickoff Returner of the Week and Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He had 325 all-purpose yards at Oregon (8 catches for a career-high 187 yards, both game bests, with a 59-yard TD to open USC's scoring, plus 6 kickoff returns for 134 yards and a 4-yard run) to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week, College Football Performance Awards National Wide Receiver of the Week and Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week honors. Against UCLA, he caught 13 catches for 224 yards (both game- and career-highs)—the catches tied the USC freshman game record and the yardage tied for sixth most in USC history—with 2 TDs (42 and 52 yards) to earn USC's Player of the Game versus UCLA Award as he and Woods became the first Trojan pair with at least 10 receptions in the same game and he also had a 23-yard kickoff return.

TRACK: He is a long jumper and sprinter on USC's track team. In 2012, he was seventh at the NCAA West Preliminary Rounds long jump with a personal best of 25-5 ½ to qualify for the NCAA Championship, where he placed 17th with a 24-2 ¼ leap. He was fourth at the Pac-12 Championships in the long jump with a then-personal-best of 25-1 ¼ and ran the leadoff leg on USC's sprint relay squad that was sixth at the Pac-12 meet. He also won the long jump at the Trojan Invitational (23-11 ½) and was second at the Rossi Relays (24-4 ¼). He joined with fellow footballers D.J. Morgan, Nickell Robey and Tony Burnett on a sprint relay quartet that ran 41.05 for third place at the 2012 Rossi Relays.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, UnderArmour All-American, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team, ESPNU 150, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, All-CIF Western Division Defensive MVP, SectionSports.com All-Southern Section second team, Los Angeles Times All-Star, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Mission League Defensive MVP as a senior wide receiver and defensive back at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.). He had 57 receptions for 1,409 yards (24.7 avg.) with 24 TDs on offense in 2010 and 45 tackles, 3 interceptions and 11 deflections on defense. Serra went 14-1 in 2010, won the CIF Western Division title and played in the California state Division II championship game.

As a junior in 2009, he made South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team while getting 89 tackles (with a sack), 6 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and a forced fumble. Serra went 15-0 in 2009 and won the CIF Northwest Division title and the California state Division III championship. Current Trojan George Farmer also prepped at Serra.

He also played basketball at Serra (he made the 2010 South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team) and was a sprinter and jumper on the track team (with a 2011 national prep No. 3 best 24-8 long jump, plus career bests of 44-7 in the triple jump, 6-4 in the high jump, 10.74 in the 100 meters and 22.11 in the 200 meters; he won the long jump and was second in the 100 at the 2011 CIF Division IV Meet, was third in the long and high jumps and fourth in the triple jump in the 2010 CIF Division IV Meet, was second in the long jump at the 2011 CIF Masters Meet and was second in the long jump at the 2011 CIF Masters Meet and was second in the long jump at the 2011 California state meet). WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MARQISE LEE

Bill Plaschke, Los Angeles Times: "Marqise Lee is the best college football player in the country. He deserves the Heisman Trophy. He continues to take away everyone else's breath, one play at a time."

Ben Glicksman, SI.com: "He's the most dangerous wideout in the nation, and, quite possibly, the best player in the nation overall. Lee has put together a campaign for the ages. Lee has blossomed into one of the sport's brightest young stars. And he's having a season that could go down as one of the all-time best."

Lenn Robins, New York Post: "Lee is the best player in college football. He turns more hitches and quick slants into big gains than any player in college football."

Pete Thamel, Sports Illustrated: "Lee is the country's most electric player, could end up as a Heisman finalist this season and will be a favorite for the Heisman in 2013."

Stewart Mandel, SI.com: "Lee is unquestionably one of the three best players in the country."

Vincent Bonsignore, Los Angeles Daily News: "He delivered a performance so powerful (at Arizona) we should be talking about him being a serious Heisman Trophy candidate."

Matt Hayes, Sporting News: "Sonofagun if Marqise Lee isn't the most exciting player in college football, I don't know who is."

Bruce Feldman, CBSSports.com: "Lee has blossomed into the country's best wideout. He's not only a good receiver, he's a great one."

Former USC All-American and NFL All-Pro wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson: "If he continues on pace, Marqise Lee will go down as the best receiver who played college football, by far."

Stanford head coach David Shaw: "Marquise Lee is the best college receiver that I've seen since I scouted Randy Moss."

Former Oregon head coach Chip Kelly: "He may be the best receiver I've had the opportunity to coach against. He's impressive on film, but even more impressive when you watch him in person."

UCLA head coach Jim Mora: "He's not an NFL prospect, he's an NFL for-sure. He could start in the NFL right now."

Arizona State head coach Todd Graham: "Hands down, Lee is the best receiver in the country. He can take it to the house any time he touches the ball."

Arizona head coach Rich Rodriguez: "He's phenomenal. It seemed like he was at a different speed, didn't he? It looked like we had angles, and he was out-running angles."

USC head coach Lane Kiffin: "I think he'll be the best USC receiver ever when it's all said and done. I've been saying that for a year now."

Former USC quarterback Matt Barkley: "You expect greatness from Marqise whenever he touches the ball. He does tremendous things with the ball."

Former Dallas Cowboys personnel director Gil Brandt: "Keyshawn (Johnson) caught a lot of passes because of muscle. Lee is going to catch passes because he has flat-out more ability and speed."

(23) TRE MADDEN

Tailback, 6-1, 220, So.*/Jr.
Aliso Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2013: Now healthy after missing 2012 with a knee injury, Madden will battle for key playing time at tailback as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Madden, who was switched from linebacker to tailback in 2012 spring practice and looked impressive, was on track to be a key contributor as a sophomore in 2012 before a torn left knee ligament sidelined him for the 2012 season and allowed him to redshirt.

2011: Madden served as a backup strongside linebacker and played on special teams as a freshman in 2011, his first year at USC. Overall in 2011 while appearing in all 12 games (he started at strongside linebacker at Colorado), he had 15 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He had 3 tackles against Washington and 2 each against Minnesota, Arizona, Notre Dame and Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, SectionSports.com All-State first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, SectionSports.com All-Southern Section first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League Defensive MVP as a senior linebacker and Wildcat quarterback at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. Despite missing 4 games with a foot injury in 2010, he had 81 tackles, with 3 sacks, and an interception on defense, while he completed 13-of-26 passes (50.0%) for 311 yards and 2 TDs and ran for 310 yards with 7 TDs on offense. Mission Viejo was a 2010 CIF Pac-5 Division finalist.

As a junior in 2009, he made Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League Defensive MVP. He had 115 tackles on defense, plus ran for 222 yards and completed 5-of-7 passes (71.4%) on offense in 2009. Current Trojans Jahleel Pinner and John Akiba also prepped at Mission Viejo.

TRE MADDEN

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. His real first name is Curtis. His father, Curtis, was a fullback and defensive end at Kansas State (1988-91). His grandfather is Lawrence McCutcheon, a Colorado State and NFL All-Pro running back with the Los Angeles Rams (1972-79), Denver Broncos (1980) and Buffalo Bills (1981) who set the since-broken Rams career rushing record (6,186 yards), led the Rams in rushing 5 times and played in Super Bowl XIV (he then was a scout and now is Director of Player Personnel with the Rams). His uncle is former USC (1995-98) cornerback Daylon McCutcheon (a 2-time All-Pac-10 pick) who played with the Cleveland Browns (1999-2006). He was born in Texas.

He attended Dorsey High in Los Angeles (Calif.) as a 2009 sophomore, making All-L.A. City Division I first team as a defensive lineman.

(53) MARQUIS SIMMONS

Linebacker, 6-1, 220, Sr.*/Sr.
Compton, CA (Dominguez HS)

CAREER: He has 11 career tackles.

2013: Simmons, whose brother starred at linebacker for USC, will compete for playing time at linebacker as a senior in 2013.

2012: Simmons was a reserve linebacker and played on special teams as a junior in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 12 games (all but Washington), he had 9 tackles. He had 3 tackles against both Colorado and Arizona State and 1 tackle each against Hawaii, UCLA and Notre Dame.

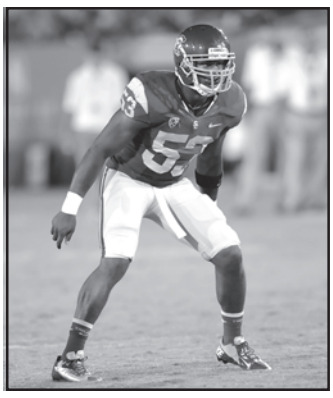
2011: Simmons was a backup linebacker and special teams player as a sophomore in 2011. He appeared briefly in 2 games (Minnesota and Utah), but injured his neck against Utah, which required surgery and sidelined him for USC's final 10 games. He had 1 tackle against Minnesota.

2010: Simmons served as a reserve linebacker and played occasionally on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2010. Overall in 2010 while appearing in 3 games (California, Notre Dame, UCLA), he made 1 tackle (at UCLA). He missed USC's first 2 games after having his appendix removed, then was sidelined for 4 mid-season games (Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona and Oregon State) with mononucleosis.

2009: Simmons redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 2009, his first year at USC. He won USC's Service Team Defensive Player of the Year Award.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2008 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team, Golden State Preps All-Southern California third team and All-CIF Western Division first team as a linebacker at Dominguez High in Compton (Calif.). He had 81 tackles and 7 sacks in 2008.

JOSH SHAW



MARQUIS SIMMONS

As a junior in 2007, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Western Division first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team and All-San Gabriel Valley League Defensive MVP. He had 80 tackles and 8 sacks in 2007.

As a sophomore in 2006, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore while getting 65 tackles and 11 sacks.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His brother, Melvin ("Champ"), lettered 2 seasons (2002-03) at linebacker for USC (including on Troy's 2003 national championship squad) after lettering 2 years (1999-2000) at Washington State. His brother, Marvin, lettered in 2004 at linebacker for Kansas State (he originally signed with USC). Two other brothers, Marlin (with California in 2004) and Maurice (with USC in 2008), signed with colleges but did not enroll.

2012: Walker started USC's first 7 games and the final game at left offensive tackle as a sophomore in 2012 and served as an often-used backup in the others while appearing in 12 games (all but Arizona, which he missed after suffering a concussion against Colorado).

2011: Walker served as a backup offensive tackle and also played on special teams as a freshman in 2011, his first year at USC. He appeared in 11 games (all but Minnesota).

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, Max Preps All-American second team, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Midlands, Prep Star All-Midwest, AP Division I All-State first team, AP Northeastern Lakes All-District first team and Cleveland Plain Dealer All-Star as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Glenville High in Cleveland (Ohio). He had 17 pancake blocks in 2010. He missed part of the 2010 season with a knee injury.

As a junior in 2009, he helped Glenville finish as state Division I runnerup.

He was a 3-year starter.

He also threw the shot put on Glenville's track team, with a best of 51-1 1/2.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC. He is one of 17 siblings (and the youngest of 14 brothers).

(72) CHAD WHEELER

Offensive Tackle, 6-7, 270, Fr.*/So.
Santa Monica, CA (Santa Monica HS)

2013: Wheeler will work to get into the playing rotation at offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013.

2012: Wheeler, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2012 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2012.

HIGH SCHOOL: He missed part of his 2011 senior year with a shoulder injury that required surgery at Santa Monica (Calif.) High while playing both offensive tackle and defensive end, but earned Super Prep All-Farwest and Prep Star All-West.

He made 38 tackles (with 5 sacks) and 2 deflections on defense as a 2010 junior.

(94) LEONARD WILLIAMS

Defensive Tackle, 6-5, 270, So./So.
Daytona Beach, FL (Mainland HS)

2013: Coming off an eye-opening and forceful debut showing in 2012, Williams returns as a starting defensive tackle as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Williams had an impressive debut as a first-year freshman defensive tackle. Overall while appearing in all 13 games and starting 9 times (all but Hawaii, Syracuse, California, Arizona), he had 64 tackles, including 13.5 for losses of 46 yards (with 8 sacks for minus 38 yards), plus 4 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries and an interception. He was named the 2012 Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year and made the Football Writers, Sporting News, Scout.com, CollegeFootballNews.com and Phil Steele Freshman All-American first teams, as well as All-Pac-12 honorable mention and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team.

He had 2 tackles (with a sack), recovered a fumble and had a deflection against Hawaii and 2 tackles with a sack against Syracuse. At Stanford, he had 1 tackle as he became the first USC true freshman to start at defensive tackle since Shaun Cody did so against Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl. He had 3 tackles for a loss (2 sacks) among his 4 tackles against California, then had 5 tackles, including 1 for a loss, at Utah. He had 4 tackles, including 2.5 for loss (with 1.5 sacks), and recovered a fumble at Washington, then had 2 tackles and a deflection against Colorado before getting ejected for a flagrant penalty. He had 3 tackles against both Arizona and Oregon, then had 6 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), and returned an interception 24 yards against Arizona State. He had 10 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), at UCLA and had 8 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and a deflection against Notre Dame. He had 14 tackles (with 0.5 sack) and a deflection against Georgia Tech.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Sporting News Top 125, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, ESPNU 150, Super Prep All-Dixie, Prep Star All-Southeast and Associated Press All-State Class 6A first team as a senior defensive lineman at Mainland High in Daytona Beach (Fla.). He had 103 tackles, including 19.5 for losses (with 10.5 sacks), in 2011. Incoming Trojan Quinton Powell also prepped at Mainland.

PERSONAL: Some of his artwork was displayed at the 2013 "Artletics" on-campus exhibit that featured the works of USC student-athletes.

(13) MAX WITTEK

Quarterback, 6-4, 235, So.*/Jr.
Newport Beach, CA (Mater Dei HS)

2013: The strong-armed Wittek, the most experienced quarterback on USC's roster, will battle for the starting job as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Wittek served as the No. 2 quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 8 games (Hawaii, Syracuse, California, Utah, Colorado, UCLA, Notre Dame, Georgia Tech) and starting twice (Notre Dame and Georgia Tech), he was 36-of-69 (52.2%) for 388 yards with 3 TDs and 5 interceptions.

He completed all 3 of his passes for 22 yards against Hawaii while seeing his first USC action. He played the final series against Syracuse, California and Utah, but did not throw a pass. He then completed 2-of-3 passes for 33 yards, with a 24-yard TD toss, against Colorado. He filled in for an injured Matt Barkley for a series-plus at the end at UCLA, going 3-of-3 for 40 yards. He then started for an injured Barkley against Notre Dame and was 14-of-23 for 186 yards with 1 TD and 2 interceptions. He started again for an injured Barkley against Georgia Tech and was 14-f-37 for 107 yards with 1 TD and 3 interceptions while throwing in 20 mph winds.

2011: Wittek, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2011 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included UnderArmour All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, ESPNU 150, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team and All-Trinity League first team as a senior quarterback at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana (Calif.). He completed 153-of-282 passes (54.3%) for 2,252 yards with 24 TDs and 15 interceptions in 2010, plus ran for 175 yards with 6 TDs.

As a 2009 junior, he made the All-Trinity League second team as he completed 136-of-230 passes (59.1%) for 2,158 yards and 15 TDs with 9 interceptions and ran for 189 yards with 2 TDs. Current Trojan Victor Blackwell also prepped at Mater Dei.

PERSONAL: He grew up in Connecticut. He and 15 of his USC teammates spent 5 days in Haiti in the spring of 2012 building homes and assisting those in need.

Defensive Tackle, 6-1, 305, So.*/Jr.
Los Angeles, CA (Taft HS)

2013: Woods will compete for key playing time at defensive tackle as a sophomore in 2013.

2012: Woods started USC's first 4 games at nose tackle and then served as an often-used backup the rest of the season as a redshirt freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 16 tackles, including 4.5 for losses of 15 yards (with 3 sacks for minus 12 yards).

He had 1 tackle against Hawaii, 2 tackles against Syracuse 3 tackles against California (with 0.5 sack) and 2 tackles (with a sack) at Washington. He had 6 tackles against Colorado, including 3 for losses (with 1.5 sacks), then he had a tackle each against Arizona and Arizona State.

2011: Woods redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, UnderArmour All-American, ESPNU 150, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team as a senior defensive and offensive lineman at Taft High in Woodland Hills (Calif.). He made 31 tackles in 2010.

As a junior in 2009, he was All-L.A. City second team, All-L.A. City Division I second team and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team while making 38 tackles with 4 sacks.

As a sophomore in 2008, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore.

He was a 4-year starter. Current Trojan D.J. Morgan also prepped at Taft.

PERSONAL: Some of his artwork was displayed at the 2013 "Artletics" on-campus exhibit that featured the works of USC student-athletes.

LANE KIFFIN
USC HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

USC head football coach Lane Kiffin is regarded as one of the game's brightest young coaches. At just 37 (he is the seventh youngest current FBS head coach), he already has been a head coach at football's top levels, both professionally and collegiately. He is known for his high football IQ, as well as for being a master playcaller and a superb recruiter.

The one-time Trojan offensive coordinator who then became the head coach of the Oakland Raiders and the Tennessee Volunteers returned to the USC program on Jan. 12, 2010, when he was named its head football coach.

His 3-year record at USC is 25-13 (.658) and he is 32-19 (.627) in 4 years as a college head coach. Only College Football Hall of Famers Howard Jones and John Robinson (with 19 wins) had more victories in their first 2 years as a Trojan head coach than Kiffin's 18. Among Kiffin's signature USC wins were road victories at No. 18 Arizona in 2010 and at both Notre Dame and No. 4 Oregon in 2011. Six of his 13 USC losses were by a total of 25 points, with 4 coming on opponent scores late in the game (2 on field goals at the gun, 1 in triple overtime and 1 on a TD with 2:23 to go) and 2 on TDs in the game's final 10 minutes

In 2012, his Trojans were the pre-season AP No. 1-ranked team and started off 6-1 before finishing with a 7-6 overall mark (5-4 for second place in the Pac-12 South Division) and advancing to a bowl (Sun) after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban. Each victory was by double digits. USC was ranked in the national Top 41 in passing efficiency, passing offense, total offense, scoring offense, pass efficiency defense, scoring defense, sacks, tackles for loss, sacks allowed, net punting and kickoff returns. Unanimous All-American first team wide receiver Marqise Lee won the Biletnikoff Award, was the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Hornung Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award as he set 14 USC records, including Pac-12 season records for receptions and receiving yards. Quarterback Matt Barkley became the Pac-12 recordholder for passing yards, completions, touchdowns and total offense as he won the Wuerffel Trophy, was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award and was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. Wide receiver Robert Woods set the USC career receptions record. Rimington Award finalist center Khaled Holmes made the All-Pac-12 first team, Academic All-American second team and Pac-12 All-Academic first team, while Freshman All-American first team defensive tackle Leonard Williams was the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year, defensive end Morgan Breslin was a Hendricks Award finalist and offensive lineman Max Tuerk was a Freshman All-American first teamer.

In 2011, he led USC (in its second year of a post-season ban) to a 10-2 overall record, a first place finish in the Pac-12 South Division at 7-2 (Troy beat both representatives in the Pac-12 Championship Game, Oregon and UCLA) and a No. 6 AP ranking (its highest finish since 2008). USC's 2011 win at Notre Dame made him the first Trojan head coach to win his first away game against the Irish and its 50-0 victory over UCLA was the third largest margin in the series' history. He was the 2011 CBSSports.com and CollegeFootballNews.com Pac-12 Coach of the Year, and the Los Angeles Sports Council L.A. Sports Awards Southern California Coach of the Year. His offense produced a 3,500-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. USC's passing, total offense and scoring averages increased from 2010. The Trojans were sixth nationally in passing efficiency and in the nation's Top 25 in passing, scoring and total offense. USC's yards-per-play average (6.5) was the third highest in school history, while its averages for total offense (456.8) and passing offense (294.2) were the fourth highest and its scoring offense average (35.8) was the fifth highest. Troy's 8 sacks allowed were the fewest at USC since records were kept in 1987 (despite not starting a senior on the offensive line) and ranked the Trojans second nationally in 2011. On the other side of the ball, the Trojans improved from the previous year in rushing, total and scoring defense, with the rushing defense (111.4) and sack averages ranking in the national Top 20. USC held 8 of its 12 opponents to 17 points or less. USC led the Pac-12 in fewest penalty yards and was in the league's Top 3 in third down conversions, time of possession, first downs and red zone defense. And, for the second consecutive year, USC blocked 7 kicks. Kiffin's 2011 Trojans had 3 All-American first teamers (Matt Kalil, Robert Woods, T.J. McDonald), 7 All-Pac-12 first teamers, the Pac-12 Morris Trophy winner (Kalil), the Pac-12 Freshmen Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year (Marqise Lee and Dion Bailey), 5 Freshman All-American first teamers and 3 NFL draftees (including first rounders Kalil and Nick Perry), plus finalists for the Biletnikoff (Woods), Hendricks (Nick Perry) and Manning (Matt Barkley) Awards. Barkley set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage, as well as school game standards for completions, pass yardage, passing TDs and total offense. Woods set the Pac-12 season receptions record and USC game receptions mark, while Woods and Lee combined for more receptions and receiving yardage in a season than any other Trojan duo (they also were the first pair of Trojans to both catch at least 10 passes in the same game). Lee's 11 TD catches were the most by any freshman in the country in 2011 and Randall Telfer's 26 receptions were the most ever by a USC freshman tight end. Bailey and Hayes Pullard were the first Trojan freshmen to lead the team in tackles. Perry led the Pac-12 in sacks (10th nationally).

In 2010 in his first year guiding USC, Kiffin led Troy to an 8-5 overall record (2 of the losses were on field goals at the gun in consecutive games and another came on a touchdown with 2:23 to play) and a third place tie in the Pac-10 at 5-4. He inherited a USC team that was ruled ineligible for post-season play because of an NCAA penalty for violations dating to the previous coaching regime and was short on personnel because of players who transferred once the penalty was announced (Troy had just 72 scholarship players, 13 shy of the NCAA limit). Despite this handicap, only Howard Jones in 1925 and John Robinson in 1976 (both with 11 wins) won more games in their Trojan coaching debut. Kiffin became the first USC head coach since Jess Hill in 1951 to begin his Trojan career with a 4-0 mark. With Kiffin calling the plays, the 2010 Trojan offensive numbers improved from 2009: total offense (431.5, +42.4), rushing offense (189.3, +22.5), passing offense (242.2, +19.9) and scoring offense (31.0, +4.5). USC averaged 6.0 yards per play in 2010, its sixth highest ever, and the Trojans twice had 600-yard offensive outputs. In 2010, offensive tackle Tyron Smith won the Pac-10's Morris Trophy and wide receiver Robert Woods was the Pac-10 Offensive Freshman of the Year (and a Freshman All-American first teamer). Smith was a first round pick in the 2011 NFL draft and was among a national-best 9 Trojan draftees.

Kiffin came back to Troy after guiding Tennessee to a 7-6 record in 2009 in his only season there. The Volunteers finished second in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division at 4-4 and played in the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. Four of Tennessee's losses were by 10 points or less, including a 2-point road loss to eventual national champion Alabama and 10 points at then-No. 1 Florida. His Vols offense jumped at least 34 places in every national statistical category over the 2008 figures, while the defense was in the nation's Top 25 in pass and total defense. He was the youngest active head coach in the NCAA FBS ranks while at Tennessee.

Before that, Kiffin was the head coach of the NFL's Raiders for 2 years (2007-08), where at age 31 he was the youngest head coach in the NFL's modern era. He was 5-15 with the Raiders (4-12 in 2007 and 1-3 in 2008). His first year, Oakland's offensive numbers improved significantly from 2006 (its scoring offense improved by 7.2 points per game as the Raiders threw 10 more TD passes and its total offense went up 48.6 yards per game, including 35.5 rushing).

Kiffin spent 6 seasons (2001-2006) as an assistant at USC under Pete Carroll. He was the tight ends coach in 2001, then handled the wide receivers the next 5 years. He added the duty of passing game coordinator in 2004, then was promoted to offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2005 and 2006.

He coached a trio of All-American first team wide receivers in his first stint at USC: Mike Williams (2003), Dwayne Jarrett (2005-06, USC's first 2-time All-American wideout) and Steve Smith (2006). Jarrett set the Pac-10 record for career touchdown catches (39) and the USC career mark for receptions (216).

While the offensive coordinator in 2005, USC's offense was in the national Top 6 in every statistical category, including tops in total offense (579.8) and second in scoring offense (49.1), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, first downs, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans scored 50 points a school-record 7 times. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season.

In 2003, Williams set USC career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records, while fellow wide receiver Keary Colbert set the school career reception record (207). In 2002, Williams and Colbert became USC's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers in a season and wide receiver Kareem Kelly became the Trojan career reception leader (204). Williams, Jarrett, Smith and Colbert all played in the NFL.

Quarterback Matt Leinart won the Heisman Trophy in 2004 while Kiffin was the passing game coordinator and tailback Reggie Bush was the 2005 Heisman winner (later vacated) with Kiffin as the offensive coordinator.

While serving as USC's recruiting coordinator, Troy's recruiting classes in 2005 and 2006 were ranked by some as No. 1 in the nation. He was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com in 2005.

Kiffin was a member of USC staffs that helped the Trojans win a pair of national championships (2003-04), post a 65-12 record (14 wins and 1 loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty) and appear in a bowl game each of his initial 6 seasons: 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game, later vacated), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game, later vacated) and 2007 Rose Bowl.

Before coming to USC the first time, Kiffin was the defensive quality control coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary).

He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for 2 seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs as a student assistant.

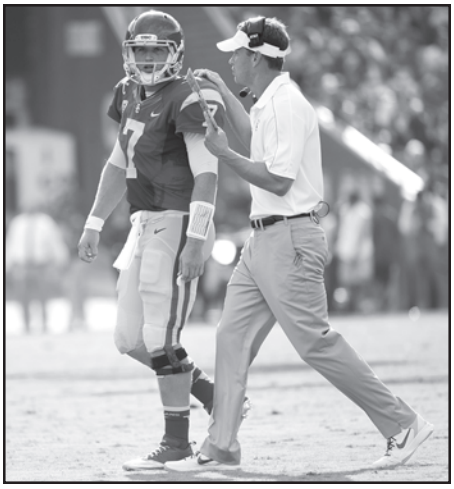
He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season.

Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for 3 seasons (1994-96). He earned his bachelor's degree in leisure service management from Fresno State in 1998.

He prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

He was born May 9, 1975. He and his wife, Layla, have 2 daughters, Landry, 6, and Presley, 5, and a son, Knox, 3.

His father, Monte (he is with the Dallas Cowboys after serving as USC's defensive coordinator in 2010 and 2011), has 47 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and NFL levels, having been on the staffs of programs that won 2 national championships (at Nebraska) and a Super Bowl (Tampa Bay Buccaneers). His brother, Chris, was a defensive lineman at Colorado State (2001-04) who was then an offensive intern at Nebraska and in 2010 was a defensive assistant at USC (he now is the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Mississippi after previously serving at Arkansas State). His father-in-law, John Reaves, was a former quarterback at Florida and 11 years in the NFL (Philadelphia Eagles, Cincinnati Bengals, Minnesota Vikings, Houston Oilers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and 3 years in the USFL (Tampa Bay Bandits) who then was an assistant coach at Florida and South Carolina. His brother-in-law, David Reaves, was a quarterback at Appalachian State, then an assistant coach at South Carolina, Tennessee and New Mexico, a quarterback instructor at the IMG Football Academy and now an assistant at South Florida. Another brother-in-law, Stephen Reaves, played quarterback at Michigan State and Southern Miss and for the CFL's Toronto Argonauts (he then was an offensive assistant at USC).



WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT LANE KIFFIN

John Taylor, NBCSports.com: "Considering the sanctions with which Kiffin and the football program had to deal, the coach that everybody loves to hate has done an outstanding job."

Former UCLA head coach Terry Donahue: "I know there's a lot of controversy around Lane, but people don't have the proper appreciation of his ability to coach. He's a very fine young developing coach."

Tom Lemming, MaxPreps.com: "He's personable and the players absolutely love him. He works as hard as any coach in the country."

Matt Hayes, Sporting News: "Kiffin has more than proved he can develop quarterbacks and expose defenses as a play-caller."

Greg Biggins, ESPNRise.com: "To the recruits and parents we've talked to, USC hired Vince Lombardi."

Former USC quarterback Matt Barkley: "I think it's really good USC has someone who knows Trojan football and the traditions and knows how we rock."

Grant Tunkel, Daily Trojan: "The Kiffin hire was exactly what USC needed to continue the legacy that Pete Carroll built. Hiring Kiffin provides the Trojans with a perfect mix. He is enough of a link to the Carroll era to instill continued confidence in the program from the start, but he's still his own coach with the drive to succeed. He knows the landscape well. He brings with him the mentality necessary to succeed at an elite program. He is young and charismatic, making him the perfect choice to connect with current players and recruit new ones."

Former USC and current Seattle Seahawks head coach Pete Carroll: "It's good that USC acted quickly to get a coach connecting with our history. Lane's going to do great."

Former Tennessee head football coach Johnny Majors: "I was around him at Tennessee. I watched practice, talked to the squad a couple of times, and spent some time in his office. And I believe he is a very good football coach. He's very aggressive and well organized. He's demanding and he and his staff attacked recruiting very aggressively. I think he is going to be very, very successful in the long run."

Former USC All-American and NFL wide receiver Mike Williams: "God is shining on the Trojan faithful. I couldn't imagine a better pick. I think Kiff is the closest thing you can get to what Coach Carroll brought. It's a no-brainer."

Former USC and NFL wide receiver Keary Colbert: "He's just like Coach Carroll. He's high-spirited and likes to have fun."

Allen Wallace, Scout.com: "Kiffin is one of the best evaluators of talent I've ever come across. He likes to work very hard. I can't imagine a better choice for USC."

Former Tennessee linebacker Nigel Mitchell-Thornton: "I liked his oomph, liked that energy. He definitely threw you out there on the field and let you compete, which a lot of us liked."

Former USC athletic director Mike Garrett: "I was able to watch Lane closely when he was an assistant with us and what I saw was a bright, creative young coach who I thought would make an excellent head coach here if the opportunity ever arose. He brings a lot to the table. He has a coaching background both in the pros and in the best collegiate conferences. He has a great command of the X's and O's. He is familiar with the Trojan landscape. He keeps the game fun. And, very importantly, he has proven to be one of the finest recruiters anywhere."

USC ASSISTANT FOOTBALL COACHES BIOGRAPHIES

JOHN BAXTER
Associate Head Coach
Special Teams Coordinator
Tight Ends

John Baxter, known for producing extremely-productive special teams play on the field and developing academic success for players off the field, is in his fourth year at USC as the associate head coach and special teams coordinator. He added the tight ends to his coaching duties in 2013. He joined the USC staff in March of 2010 after spending 13 seasons on the Fresno State coaching staff.

In 2012, punter Kyle Negrete was a finalist for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

He was named the 2011 FootballScoop.com Special Teams Coordinator of the Year. For the second consecutive year, USC blocked 7 kicks. The Trojans also had a scoring kickoff return, made a 2-point conversion and converted a fake punt for a first down. In 2011, placekicker Andre Heidari made Freshman All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team, and his 88.2% field goal percentage was third in the nation among kickers with at least 10 made field goals (and the best among freshmen kickers). Tight end-fullback Rhett Ellison made the All-Pac-12 first team as a special teams performer.

In 2010, USC's special teams blocked 7 kicks and punts, returned a punt and kickoff for a touchdown, scored 5 times on 2-point conversions, had a defensive PAT and made first downs on a fake punt and fake field goal. USC ranked high nationally in punt returns (seventh at 14.6) and kickoff returns (17th at 24.5) with wide receiver Ronald Johnson placing 12th nationally in punt returns (14.2). Wide receiver Robert Woods made the All-Pac-10 first team as a kick returner. Johnson was a sixth round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

In his 13 years (1997-2009) at Fresno State, Baxter was the associate head coach and special teams coach in addition to handling either the tight ends (1997-2001, 2003, 2009) or wide receivers (2002, 2004-2008).

Baxter turned the Bulldogs' special teams into one of the top units in the nation annually. During his time, Fresno State blocked 84 kicks and punts (including a national-best 49 from 2002 through 2009) and scored 39 special teams touchdowns (with 3 safeties). The Bulldogs topped the nation in fewest punt return yards allowed in 2004 and 2005. A.J. Jefferson led the nation in kickoff returns in 2007. Clifton Smith's 189 punt return yards with 2 touchdowns against Weber State in 2005 were Fresno State game records, while his 5 career scoring punt returns also was a school mark. Six of Baxter's Bulldog kickers and punters earned All-Western Athletic Conference first team honors.

During his time at Fresno State, the Bulldogs posted a 100-66 record, played in 10 bowls (1999 Las Vegas, 2000-01-02-03 Silicon Valley, 2004 MPC Computers, 2005 AutoZone Liberty, 2007 Roady's Humanitarian and 2008-09 New Mexico) and won the WAC title in 1999.

Along with his coaching duties at Fresno State, Baxter developed the highly-successful and nationally-regarded program, "Academic Gameplan." His innovative and comprehensive study-skills program teaches students the rules, fundamentals, techniques and life skills needed to succeed in the classroom. "Academic Gameplan," which is now being used at schools throughout the country, was a key reason for the academic success of the Fresno State football program, which during Baxter's tenure produced 141 Academic All-WAC players and an NCAA APR score nearly 20 percentage points higher than the national average.

He was selected as the Clovis Co-Citizen of the Year in 2006, along with Fresno State head coach Pat Hill.

Baxter, 49, has 31 years of coaching experience. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Loras College, where he served for 5 seasons (1981-85) as a student assistant (working with the running backs) during his undergraduate time.

He then moved on to Iowa State for 2 seasons (1986-87) as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line and special teams before the first of 2 stints at Arizona. He was with the Wildcats in 1988 (as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs and special teams), went to Maine in 1989 for his first full-time job coaching the outside linebackers and special teams when the Black Bears made it to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs and returned to Arizona in 1990 and 1991 as the tight ends and special teams coach (the Wildcats played in the 1990 Aloha Bowl). He then was at Maryland for 2 seasons (1992-93) handling the running backs and special teams and Tulane for 3 years (1994-96) in charge of the tight ends and special teams before going to Fresno State.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Loras in 1985 and then his master's in higher education from Iowa State in 1987.

He prepped at Loyola Academy in Chicago (Ill.).

He was born on June 28, 1963. He and his wife, Jill, have 2 daughters, Kelly, 16, and McKenzie, 14. His father-in-law is former Utah and Weber State head coach Ron McBride.

JAMES CREGG
Offensive Line

James Cregg is in his fourth year at USC as the offensive line coach. He joined the USC staff in January of 2010 after spending 13 years coaching on the collegiate and NFL levels.

In 2012, center Khaled Holmes was a Rimington Award finalist and made the All-Pac-12 first team, as well as Academic All-American second team and Pac-12 All-Academic first team.

In 2011, USC was second in the nation in sacks allowed, surrendering just 8 (the fewest since records were kept in 1987) and did so while not starting a senior on the line. Offensive tackle Matt Kalil was an All-American first teamer and won the Pac-12 Morris Trophy before being the fourth pick of the 2012 NFL Draft, while offensive guard Marcus Martin was a Freshman All-American first team pick.

In 2010, offensive tackle Tyron Smith won the Pac-10 Morris Trophy, made All-Pac-10 first team and was a first round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

Cregg spent 2009 at Tennessee as the offensive line coach. The Vols tied for the Southeastern Conference regular season lead with only 12 sacks allowed. Cregg's line helped tailback Montario Hardesty rush for 1,345 yards and 13 touchdowns (nearly a 1,000 more yards than he previously had in any season). Tackle Aaron Douglas made the SEC All-Freshman team.

Before that, he was an offensive line assistant with the NFL's Oakland Raiders for 2 years (2007-08).

Cregg, 39, began his coaching career at his alma mater, Colorado State, where he was a student assistant working with the offensive line in 1996 and then a graduate assistant for 3 seasons (1997-99). The Rams went 11-2 in 1997 as they captured the Western Athletic Conference title and won the Holiday Bowl, while the 1999 squad was the Mountain West Conference co-champion and played in the Liberty Bowl.

He then coached the defensive line at Colgate for 4 years (2000-03). The Raiders advanced to the 2003 NCAA Division I-AA championship game, but lost to Delaware to snap a school-record 21-game winning streak. In both of his final 2 seasons, Colgate won the Patriot League title, finished in the Top 10 nationally in rushing defense and was first in the conference in total defense.

He next spent 3 seasons (2004-06) coaching the defensive line at Idaho before moving on to the NFL.

Cregg was a 3-year (1993-95) letterman at Colorado State, starting on the offensive line his final 2 seasons and earning All-WAC honors as a senior. The Rams won the WAC title in 1994 and 1995 and played in the Holiday Bowl both seasons.

He received his bachelor's degree in social science from Colorado State in 1997.

He prepped at Norco (Calif.) High and was elected into the Norco High Hall of Fame in 2001.

He was born Aug. 18, 1973. He and his wife, Dayna, have a daughter, McKenzie, 7.

MIKE EKELER
Linebackers

Mike Ekeler, who has been on staff's that produced some of the nation's finest defenses, joined the USC staff in February of 2013 as the linebackers coach.

Ekeler, 41, was Indiana's co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach the past 2 years (2011-12).

Before that, he spent 3 years (2008-10) as Nebraska's linebackers coach, where he was involved with some of the nation's most successful defenses. In 2010, Nebraska was third nationally in pass efficiency defense, fifth in pass defense, ninth in scoring defense and 11th in total defense. In 2009, the Cornhuskers led the country in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense, and were seventh in total defense and ninth in rushing defense. He coached NFL draft picks Lavonte David, a 2010 All-American first teamer when he set the school season tackles record, Phillip Dillard and Cody Glenn. Nebraska won the Big 12 North Division title each year he was on staff and played in the 2009 Gator Bowl and 2009 and 2010 Holiday Bowls.

He was at LSU for 3 seasons (2005-07), the first 2 years as a defensive graduate assistant and the last year as an intern. Each season, the Tigers were third nationally in total defense (the 242.8 average in 2006 was the school's fewest yards allowed in 30 years). LSU won the BCS championship in 2007, and also captured the 2007 Sugar Bowl and the 2005 Peach Bowl (as the SEC West champion). He worked with All-American first teamers Glenn Dorsey, LaRon Landry, Kyle Williams and Claude Wroten.

He was a defensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma for 2 years (2003-04) as the Sooners played in the BCS championship game both seasons (they lost to USC in the 2005 game). In 2003, Oklahoma was second nationally in pass defense, third in both total defense and pass efficiency defense and fifth in scoring defense.

After spending time in private business as the owner of an Omaha (Neb.)-based sales company, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Omaha's Skutt High for 3 years (1999-2001) and then at Manhattan (Kan.) High in 2002.

He played linebacker and on special teams for 4 years (1991-94) at Kansas State as the Wildcats played in the 1993 Copper Bowl and 1994 Aloha Bowl squads. As a senior in 1994, he became the only Wildcat ever appointed captain specifically by longtime head coach Bill Snyder.

A Big 12 All-Academic selection, he earned his bachelor's degree in social science from Kansas State in 1995.

He was a member of the 1988 Nebraska Class B state championship team as a linebacker and wide receiver at Blair (Neb.) High.

He was born on Oct. 4, 1971. He and his wife, Barbie, have a son, J.J., 11, and daughters Cameryn, 10, Abigail, 8, and Bella, 4.

CLAY HELTON
Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

Clay Helton is in his fourth year at USC as the quarterbacks coach. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013. He joined the USC staff in February of 2010 after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis.

In 2012, quarterback Matt Barkley won the Wuerrfel Trophy and was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award as he became the Pac-12 career recordholder for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), touchdowns (116) and total offense (12,214). He also was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete.

In 2011, Barkley was a Manning Award and Wuerrfel Trophy finalist as he set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes (39) and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage (69.1%), as well as school game standards for completions (35), pass yardage (468), passing TDs (6) and total offense (470). He was eighth nationally in passing efficiency and 16th in total offense. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Helton, 40, began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for 3 seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next 4 seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach the final 3 years.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running recordholder DeAngelo Williams, who went on to finish seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and be an NFL first round selection.

As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006), as well as the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top 6 in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single season records for completions, passing yards and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

Memphis played in 5 bowls during Helton's time: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season, but was there just 2 months before coming to USC.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for 3 seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton.

He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

He played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. In 1993, he completed 1-of-3 passes in late duty in Houston's 49-7 loss to USC in the Coliseum.

He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994.

He prepped at Clements High in Sugarland (Tex.)

He was born on June 24, 1972. He and his wife, Angela, have 3 children: sons Reid, 15, and Turner, 9, and daughter Aubrey, 13. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, is the running backs coach at Alabama Birmingham after assistant coaching stops at Memphis and Hawaii and playing at Houston.

TEE MARTIN
Wide Receivers

Tee Martin, the quarterback for Tennessee's 1998 national championship team who then played in the NFL, is in his second year at USC as the wide receivers coach. He joined the USC staff in February of 2012.

In 2012, wide receiver Marqise Lee won the Biletnikoff Award and was an All-American first teamer, plus he was a finalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Hornung Award and was the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year as he set Pac-12 season records for receptions (112) and receiving yards (1,680) while leading the Pac-12 in receptions, receiving yards, all-purpose yards and kickoff returns.

Martin, 34, spent the previous 2 years (2010-11) as the wide receivers coach at Kentucky. He also served as the passing game coordinator in 2011. In 2010, Wildcat wide receiver Randall Cobb was an All-American first teamer and NFL second round selection, while wide receiver Chris Matthews tied for the Southeastern Conference lead in touchdown catches. Kentucky played in the BBVA Compass Bowl that season.

Martin began his coaching career as the passing game coordinator at Morehouse College in 2006, when the Maroon Tigers had the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's top-ranked rushing, passing and total offense.

He then was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Cobb High in Kennesaw (Ga.) in 2007, helping the Warriors to a 10-1 record in the Class AAAAA ranks, and the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Atlanta (Ga.) High in 2008.

He spent 2009 as the quarterbacks coach at New Mexico.

Martin also was a coach for the Elite 11 Quarterback Camps (2007-08), Nike football training camps (2007-08) and the Nike Combine Tour (2008). He has mentored and evaluated more than 1,000 quarterbacks, including more than 30 Division I signees. He also created the "Dual Threat" Quarterback Camp and Academy in Atlanta in 2008.

In 2007 and 2008, he also was a college football analyst for the Comcast Sports Southeast's twice-weekly show, "Talking Football," and he did a weekly radio show about college football, "Hot Tee and Touchdowns," on the ESPN affiliate in Atlanta, 680 AM The Fan.

After prepping at Williamson High in Mobile (Ala.,), he was a 4-year (1996-99) letterman at Tennessee. After serving as Peyton Manning's backup his first 2 years, he led the Volunteers to a 13-0 record in 1998, capped by the national championship following a Fiesta Bowl win over Florida State. He led Tennessee to another trip to the Fiesta Bowl in 1999 and was named All-SEC first team. He set NCAA game (since-tied 23 versus South Carolina) and season (since-broken 24) records for consecutive completions in 1998.

He was selected by Pittsburgh in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft, beginning a 6-year pro career. After 2 seasons (2000-01) with the Steelers (Pittsburgh won the 2001 AFC Central Division title), he went to NFL Europe in 2002, when he led the Rhein Fire to a league-best 7-3 record and a berth in the World Bowl. He returned to the NFL with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, then moved to the Canadian Football League and spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

He received his bachelor's degree in sports management in 2004 from the U.S. Sports Academy (through Tennessee).

He was born on July 25, 1978. His real first name is Tamaurice. He and his wife, Toya, have 2 sons, Kaden, 8, and newborn Cannon, and 12-year-old twins, daughter A'Yadra and son Amari. His wife is a recording artist with hit singles "I Do!" (2001) and "No Matta What (Party All Night)" (2002).

ED ORGERON
Assistant Head Coach
Recruiting Coordinator
Defensive Line

Ed Orgeron, one of the most popular assistant coaches in USC history, is in his fourth year back at Troy as the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach after returning to the Trojan staff in January of 2010. He also was the defensive coordinator in 2010 and 2011 and then the assistant head coach starting in 2012. It's his 10th overall season at USC.

In 2012, Sporting News selected him as the nation's No. 2 recruiter and Rivals.com named him one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters. Defensive end Morgan Breslin was a Hendricks Award finalist, while defensive tackle Leonard Williams was named a Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year.

In 2011, he was named the Scout.com/FOXSports.com National Recruiter of the Year, ESPNU/ESPN The Magazine named him the top recruiter in college football (and third best in all of collegiate athletics) and Rivals.com ranked him as the second-best recruiter of the previous 10 years (2002-11). USC in 2011 improved from the previous year in rushing, total and scoring defense, with the rushing defense (111.4) and sack averages ranking in the national Top 20. USC held 8 of its 12 opponents to 17 points or less. Defensive end Nick Perry, who tied for 10th nationally in sacks (tops in the Pac-12), was a 2011 All-Pac-12 first teamer and a finalist for the Hendrick Award before being an NFL first round selection.

In 2010, defensive tackle Jurrell Casey was an All-Pac-10 first teamer and a third round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

Orgeron left USC after 7 seasons there to become the head coach at Mississippi for 3 years (2005-07), where he went 10-25.

He then was the defensive line coach with the NFL's New Orleans Saints in 2008 and spent 2009 as Tennessee's assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach.

Orgeron was USC's defensive line coach from 1998 to 2004. He took on the added responsibility of recruiting coordinator in 2001 and then was named assistant head coach in 2003. USC's 2002, 2003 and 2004 recruiting classes were ranked among the nation's top 5 (the 2003 and 2004 groups were listed by many as No. 1). He was named the 2004 National Recruiter of the Year by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.

He coached All-American first team defensive linemen Kenechi Udeze (2003), Shaun Cody (2004) and Mike Patterson (2004), all future NFLers. The Trojans led the nation in rushing defense in 2003 behind the highly-regarded "Wild Bunch II" defensive line and were second in 2004. USC won the 2003 and 2004 national championship and played in 5 bowls games when he was on the staff: 1998 Sun Bowl, 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl and 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Orgeron, 51, has 27 years of coaching experience. Before coming to USC, he was Syracuse's defensive line coach for 3 seasons (1995-97) and the Orangemen played in a bowl game each year (1996 Gator, 1996 Liberty and 1997 Fiesta).

He came to Syracuse from Nicholls State, where he was the linebackers coach in 1994.

Before that, he was the defensive line coach at Miami for 4 seasons (1989-92), where he coached 8 All-Americans, including NFL first rounders Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland and Warren Sapp. In 1988, he was a graduate assistant at Miami, working with the defensive line. During his tenure, the Hurricanes won the national championship twice (1989 and 1991), finished second in the AP poll once (1988) and third twice (1990 and 1992) while appearing in 5 New Year's Day bowls (1989 Orange, 1990 Sugar, 1991 Cotton, 1992 Orange, 1993 Sugar).

Orgeron also was a graduate assistant at Northwestern (La.) State, his alma mater, in 1984 and McNeese State in 1985, working with the defensive line at both schools, then was an assistant strength coach at Arkansas for 2 years (1986-87). The Razorbacks were in the 1987 Orange Bowl and 1987 Liberty Bowl. He worked in private business in 1993.

He was a 4-year starting defensive lineman at Northwestern State, captaining the Demons as a senior. He received his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Northwestern State in 1984.

He starred in football, basketball and track at South Lafourche High in Galliano, La.

Born July 27, 1961, he and his wife, Kelly, have 3 sons, Tyler, 20, and 14-year-old twins Parker and Cody. He played himself in the 2009 Oscar-nominated movie, "The Blind Side."

CLANCY PENDERGAST
Defensive Coordinator
Secondary

Clancy Pendergast, who has coordinated some of the top defenses in the NFL and in college during the past nine years, was named USC's defensive coordinator in January of 2013. He will also work with USC's secondary.

The 45-year-old Pendergast, who spent 1992 as a defensive assistant at USC, is known for his aggressive defenses that use creative schemes to create pressure.

He spent the past three years (2010-12) as the defensive coordinator at California. The Golden Bears led the conference in total defense, pass defense and fewest first downs allowed in each of his first two seasons while producing nine NFL players, including first rounder Cameron Jordan, and three All-Conference first teamers, including 2011 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year Mychal Kendricks.

In 2010, Cal topped the Pac-10 in sacks and was in the league's top five in scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and opponent third down conversions while holding four opponents to 10 or less points (the most by a Golden Bear defense since 1968) and three foes to under 200 total yards.

In 2011, Cal was in the Pac-12's top three in rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, sacks and tackles for loss while notching 23 turnovers and 34 sacks and holding five teams under 70 rushing yards. The Golden Bears played in the Holiday Bowl.

His young 2012 Cal defense, with only five returning starters, held the wide-open offenses of UCLA and Washington State to just 17 points each.

Pendergast went to Cal after six seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator with the Arizona Cardinals (2004-08), including when the Cardinals won the 2008 NFC title to earn a berth in Super Bowl XLIII, and Kansas City Chiefs (2009). His squads had 176 takeaways during those six years.

In his five seasons with Arizona, his defense finished 20th or better in the final NFL rankings 37 times in categories such as points allowed, total yards allowed, rushing yards allowed, passing yards allowed, yards allowed per play, opponents third down percentage, sacks, interceptions and fumbles recovered.

Cardinal linemen Bertrand Berry and Darnell Dockett were Pro Bowlers in his defense. He also worked with Arizona's secondary, coaching safety Adrian Wilson to a pair of Pro Bowls.

In 2004, Arizona was 12th in the NFL in total defense and scoring defense, as well as in the top five in third down defense and fumble recoveries, and it forced 30 turnovers. Linebacker Karlos Dansby was an All-Rookie honoree.

His 2005 unit was in the NFL's top 10 in total defense, third down efficiency, first downs allowed and fumble recoveries, while his 2006 defense forced 33 turnovers, the most by the Cardinals since 1998 and tied for fifth in the NFL that year.

In 2007, Arizona was ninth in the NFL in run defense and set a modern-day NFL record by holding the Detroit Lions to minus 18 rushing yards. Its six scoring interception returns and 551 interception return yards that season were franchise records as the Cardinals tied for 10th in the NFL in interceptions.

In 2008, Arizona tied for fifth in the league with 30 takeaways, including forcing 13 turnovers during its playoff run.

In 2009 with Kansas City, a young Chiefs defense had 28 takeaways and 22 sacks. The unit improved significantly in sacks, rushing touchdowns allowed and third down conversions from the previous year.

Pendergast began his NFL coaching career in 1995 as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Houston Oilers.

He then spent seven seasons (1996-2002) with the Dallas Cowboys as part of staffs that won two NFC East titles (1996 and 1998) and made three NFC playoff appearances (1996, 1998-99). He was a defensive assistant and quality control coach his first four seasons (1996-99), then oversaw Dallas' nickel defense packages in 2000 before coaching the defensive backs in his final two campaigns (2001-02). The Cowboys were third in the NFL in pass defense in 2000 and 2001. He tutored safety Roy Williams, who was an All-Rookie selection in 2002, as well as All-Pro and three-time Pro Bowl safety Darren Woodson.

He then was the linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2003.

Pendergast started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State in 1991 before becoming a Trojan defensive assistant in 1992 under head coach Larry Smith. He then was a graduate assistant/tight ends at Oklahoma for two seasons (1993-94). Each of those college teams played in a bowl, as Mississippi State qualified for the Liberty Bowl, USC for the Freedom Bowl and Oklahoma for the John Hancock and Copper Bowls.

He prepped at Tolleson (Ariz.) High, then received his bachelor's degree in agriculture from Arizona in 1990.

Born on Nov. 29, 1967, he is single.

TOMMIE ROBINSON
Passing Game Coordinator
Running Backs

Tommie Robinson, who has coached running backs at the collegiate and NFL levels, joined the USC staff in Feburary of 2013 as the running backs coach.

Robinson, 49, handled the Arizona Cardinals' running backs the past 3 years (2010-12). In 2011, he helped Beanie Wells become the first player in franchise history to run for at least 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns. Wells also set a franchise game rushing record with 228 yards against the St. Louis Rams that season. The Cardinals' rushing attack was hampered in 2012 by injuries and the 2010 offense was primarily pass oriented.

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2007-09) as the running backs coach at Miami (Fla.), helping the Hurricanes to the 2008 Emerald Bowl and 2009 Champs Sports Bowl, after working in 2006 with the running back at Memphis.

Before Memphis, he coached 4 seasons (2002-05) at Georgia Tech, coaching wide receivers the first year and then tight ends the next 3 seasons. Tech wideouts Kerry Watkins and Will Glover finished their careers in 2002 among the school's Top 5 all-time receivers. Tight ends John Paul Foschi and Darius Williams played in the NFL. The Yellow Jackets played in the 2002 Silicon Valley Classic, 2004 Humanitarian Bowl and 2004 Champs Sports Bowl.

He spent 2001 as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State, working with future NFLer Tatum Bell.

He was an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys for 3 years (1998-2000), working with the wide receivers (including future Hall of Famer Michael Irvin) and special teams. The 1998 and 1999 Cowboys advanced to the NFL playoffs and the 1998 squad won the NFC East title.

He went to the Cowboys after a 3-month stop as the running backs coach at UNLV early in 1998. Before that, he coached running backs at Utah State for 2 years (1992-93), helping the Aggies to the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl, and wide receivers at TCU for 4 seasons (1994-97), as the Horned Frogs played in the 1994 Independence Bowl.

He began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1991, as the Razorbacks played in the 1991 Independence Bowl.

He started coaching at the high school level, guiding Woodham High in Pensacola (Fla.) in 1986 and 1987 and Central High in Phenix City (Ala.), his alma mater, from 1988 to 1990.

During his various college stops, he also served minority coaching internships with the New Orleans Saints, St. Louis Rams, Dallas Cowboys and Miami Dolphins.

He was a 3-year starter at strong safety and team captain as a senior at Troy State, where he was a member of the 1984 Division II national championship team. He received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice at Troy State in 1985.

He was born on April 4, 1963. He and his wife, Lartonyar, have 3 children: sons Dantrell and Trey and daughter Tawanda.

MIKE SUMMERS
Running Game Coordinator Offensive Line

Mike Summers, who has helped develop some of the most productive offenses in the history of various football powers during his 33 years as a coach, joined the USC staff in February of 2013 as the running game coordinator and offensive line coach.

Summers, 56, was hired in January of 2013 as Western Kentucky's offensive line coach before coming to USC.

Before that, he was the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Kentucky for 3 seasons (2010-12). The 2010 Wildcats' offense averaged 6.1 yards per play behind his line that had only 1 returning starter and the 2012 squad averaged nearly 140 rushing yards despite the line's injury-plagued season. Kentucky played in the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl.

He spent the 2 previous seasons (2008-09) at Arkansas, where he was the assistant head coach and offensive line coach. Arkansas led the Southeastern Conference in scoring in 2009 and won the 2010 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Both center Jonathan Luigs, who was a finalist for the 2008 Rimington Trophy, and guard Mitch Petrus, a 2009 All-SEC first teamer, played in the NFL.

He was the Atlanta Falcons' offensive line coach in 2007 after spending 4 years (2003-06) coaching the offensive line at Louisville. In 2006, his line helped the Cardinals rank second nationally in total offense (475.3), seventh in passing (290.0) and 12th in rushing (185.3) as 3 of his linemen (Renardo Foster, Kurt Quarterman and George Bussey) were All-Big East first team picks. The 2004 line helped Louisville, which set a school record with 6,468 total yards, 3,005 rushing yards, 597 points and 47 rushing TDs while allowing only 20 sacks, lead the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8). In 2003, the Cards set a set a then-school rushing record while ranking fifth nationally in total offense (488.9) and 10th in rushing offense (228.2). Two of his other linemen, Jason Spitz and Travis Leffew, were All-Conference USA first team in 2004 and All-Big East first team in 2005. Foster, Quarterman, Bussey, Spitz, Leffew and center Eric Wood all made NFL rosters, with Wood a first round selection. During his tenure, Louisville won the 2004 Conference USA championship and 2006 Big East title, and played in the 2007 Orange Bowl, 2006 Gator Bowl, 2004 Liberty Bowl and 2003 GMAC Bowl. The 2004 and 2006 Cardinal teams both finished ranked No. 6 by AP.

He spent 2 seasons (2001-02) at Ohio as the offensive line coach. The Bobcats were sixth nationally in rushing offense in 2001 (240.1) and eighth in 2002 (239.8).

In 2000, he was the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State.

The previous 4 years (1996-99), he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of the South (Sewanee), where he produced Top 5-ranked rushing and total offenses in the conference.

He was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Oregon State for 5 seasons (1991-95) and also recruiting coordinator in his first year. The Beavers led the Pac-10 in rushing his final 4 seasons. He was named the league's top "Offensive Backfield Coach" in 1993.

While offensive coordinator at Northern Illinois for 6 seasons (1985-90), his offense established 51 school records and 7 NCAA marks.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line at Kentucky (1980-81) and Texas A&M (1982-84).

He played defensive back at Georgetown (Kent.) College after prepping at Tates Creek High in Lexington (Kent.).

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Georgetown College in 1978 and a postgraduate degree from Kentucky in 1980.

He was born on June 16, 1956. He and his wife, Kathy (the daughter of legendary Kentucky men's basketball coach Joe B. Hall), have a daughter, Amy.

ROSS CUMMING
Outside Linebackers

Ross Cumming, a former standout special teams performer at USC, joined the Trojan coaching staff in August of 2012 as a graduate assistant working with the special teams and linebackers. He now is a graduate assistant working with the outside linebackers in 2013.

In 2012, punter Kyle Negrete was a finalist for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

Originally a walk-on who earned a scholarship in 2010, the 25-year-old Cumming was a 4-year (2008-11) letterman at USC. He was a reserve linebacker and special teams player who as a 2011 senior also served as the backup fullback and worked some at tight end. He had 35 career tackles while appearing in 47 games. He had 3 tackles as a first-year freshman in 2008, then added 9 stops in 2009 and 8 in 2010. He made 15 tackles, returned a blocked punt 17 yards (at Oregon) and caught 2 passes for 16 yards (8.0 avg.) in 2011 while winning USC's Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

He spent 2006 and 2007 at the Naval Academy Prep School, but did not play football because of an injury.

He was a tight end and linebacker at Santa Margarita High in Rancho Santa Margarita (Calif.), where he made All-Serra League as a 2004 junior.

He earned his bachelor's degree in public policy, management and planning at USC in 2012. He is working on his master's degree in communication management at USC.

Born Sept. 28, 1987, he is single.

AARON AUSMUS
Strength and Conditioning Coach

Aaron Ausmus, a one-time Trojan assistant who then headed up strength and conditioning programs at 4 universities, is in his fourth season as USC's head strength and conditioning coach. He returned to USC in February of 2010.

Ausmus, 38, was Tennessee's director of strength and conditioning in 2009, where he oversaw all of the Volunteers' teams.

He began his strength and conditioning coaching career at Tennessee, his alma mater, first as a graduate assistant for 2 seasons (1998-1999) and then as a part-time assistant the next season (2000).

He then became an assistant at USC for 3 seasons (2001-03), where he worked with the Trojans' 2003 national championship football team, as well as with the men's and women's track, women's soccer and men's golf teams.

He then was the head strength and conditioning coach at Idaho in 2004, where he supervised the strength, speed and conditioning programs for 16 men's and women's teams.

He spent the next 3 years (2005-07) as the head football strength and conditioning coach at Mississippi, then held a similar position at North Texas in 2008.

Ausmus was a member of Tennessee's track team (1994-98), where he was a 2-time All-American and won the 1997 NCAA indoor shot put title.

He has a bachelor's (1998) and master's (1999) degree in education from Tennessee.

He prepped at Campbell County High in Jacksboro, Tenn., where he competed on the track team.

He was born Nov. 6, 1974. He and his wife, Andrea, a former thrower on Tennessee's track squad who previously worked in the USC football office, have 2 sons, Max Aden, 5, and Bo David, 4.

2012 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – September 1, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 49, Hawaii 10
Att: 93,607

Hawaii	0	0	10	0	—	10
USC	20	15	7	7	—	49

WR Marqise Lee scored 2 electrifying touchdowns, QB Matt Barkley threw 4 TD passes (including a pair to WR Robert Woods) and the Trojan defense came up with 4 turnovers as No. 1-ranked USC opened its 2012 campaign with a dominating 49-10 win over Hawaii before a sold out Coliseum crowd of 93,607 and a national FOX television audience.

It was USC's 15th consecutive victory in an opener and kept Troy undefeated in 8 tries against Hawaii. USC, bowl eligible after a 2-year NCAA ban, scored at least 30 points for its ninth consecutive game.

Lee took a Barkley hitch pass on the game's opening play, put a move on his defender and raced 75 yards for a touchdown. Then on USC's first possession of the second half, he returned a kickoff 100 yards for a score, becoming just the second Trojan to have a 100-yard scoring kickoff return (along with Anthony Davis, who did so twice in 1974). Overall, Lee had 297 all-purpose yards, including 197 on 10 receptions.

USC built a 35-0 halftime lead as Woods caught a 20-yard TD from Barkley to cap a 99-yard drive, followed by a 27-yard scoring interception return by LB Hayes Pullard late in the first quarter. TB Silas Redd, who transferred from Penn State, ran for a 31-yard TD early in the second quarter after DT Christian Heyward recovered a fumble, then Barkley hit Woods for a 2-yard score and PK Andre Heidari nailed a 28-yard field goal at the halftime gun. USC had 348 total yards at halftime to SU's 83 (the Orange managed -4 on the ground), with Barkley throwing for 304 yards and Lee having 8 grabs for 176 yards.

Hawaii got on the board on its first drive of the second half as QB Scott Schroeder found WR Scott Harding on an 18-yard TD toss, but Lee took the ensuing kickoff return back 100 yards. Hawaii responded with a 36-yard field goal by PK Tyler Hadden, but USC answered with an 11-yard Barkley TD pass to TE Randall Telfer early in the fourth quarter.

USC had 475 total yards in the game to Hawaii's 264, but the Trojans converted just 4-of-14 third downs. Of the 62 Trojans who played, 27 were seeing their first USC action.

Overall, Barkley was 23-of-38 for 372 yards, Woods had 6 catches for 42 yards and Redd ran 56 yards on 9 carries.

LB Dion Bailey led USC with 7 tackles, Pullard and CB Anthony Brown had 6 and DE Morgan Breslin had 5 while becoming the first junior college transfer to start on the USC defensive line since end Marcus Bonds did so in 4 mid-season games in 1994. USC posted 5 sacks. S Josh Shaw also had an interception and DT Leonard Williams recovered a fumble.

For Hawaii, Schroeder was 24-of-39 for 208 yards, WR Jeremiah Ostrowski had 8 catches for 34 yards and RB Will Gregory had 48 yards on 10 carries. Norm Chow, the former USC offensive coordinator, was making his career head coaching debut.

Late USC All-American and NFL star linebacker Junior Seau was remembered during the game and flags were at half-staff in memory of late astronaut Neil Armstrong, a USC alumnus. For the first time since 1953, fan could take rail service to the Coliseum. It was USC's first game broadcast on FOX.

GAME 2 – September 8, East Rutherford, New Jersey
USC 42, Syracuse 29
Att: 39,507

USC	0	14	7	21	—	42
Syracuse	0	3	13	13	—	29

QB Matt Barkley threw a school record-tying 6 touchdown passes, including a school record-tying 3 to WR Marqise Lee and 2 to WR Robert Woods, and LB Dion Bailey had a pair of interceptions to help No. 2 USC overcome a sluggish start and beat Syracuse, 42-29, in "New York's College Classic" before 39,507 fans in MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J., and a national ABC-TV audience in a game that was delayed for 70 minutes at halftime because of severe weather and lightning in the area.

It was USC's first visit to the New York City metropolitan area since 2000.

Barkley celebrated his 22nd birthday by completing 23-of-30 passes for 187 yards, while Lee (11 catches for 66 yards) and Woods (10 catches for 93 yards) registered only the second game in USC history that a duo had double digit receptions (they also did so versus UCLA in 2011). Woods had 200 all-purpose yards, including a 31-yard punt return that led to a Trojan fourth quarter TD after the Orange had pulled within 5 points and then a 76-yard reverse on the following series that led to another USC TD. TB Silas Redd, from nearby Connecticut, ran for 107 yards on 15 carries, while TD Curtis McNeal added 63 yards on 11 tries. Bailey, fellow LB Hayes Pullard and CB Torin Harris each had 8 tackles.

Syracuse actually outgained USC, 455 to 445, while getting 24 more plays (87-63). USC ran for 258 yards, while the Orange passed for 322 yards. Troy was penalized 12 times.

After a scoreless first quarter, Barkley hit Lee (13 yards) early in the second quarter and Woods (29 yards) late in the half for touchdowns before Syracuse got a 37-yard field goal from PK Ross Krautman at the halftime gun.

After a Bailey interception on SU's opening drive of the second half, Woods caught a 4-yard Barkley TD toss before the Orange scored twice within a span of 2:09 (on a 3-yard pass from QB Ryan Nassib to WR Marcus Sales and an 8-yard run by HB Prince-Tyson Gulley following a Barkley pick) to pull within 21-16. But USC, behind Woods' big plays, forged a more secure lead early in the fourth quarter on a 22-yard Barkley TD pass to TE Xavier Grimble, who broke free from 4 Syracuse tacklers, and then a 4-yard Barkley-to-Lee scoring toss on the following Trojan possession. Syracuse responded on the ensuing drive as Nassib connected with Sales for a 14-yard score, but USC countered with a 3-yard Barkley pass to Lee several plays Redd had a 40-yard run.

Nassib's 1-yard run with 1:17 to play ended the game's scoring. Nassib was 30-of-46 for 322 yards, Sales had 8 receptions for 104 yards and Gulley ran for 56 yards on 9 carries.

USC	7	7	0	0	—	14
Stanford	7	0	7	7	—	21

No. 21 Stanford, behind 213 all-purpose yards with 2 TDs from TB Stepfan Taylor and a stifling defense that shut out the Trojans in the game's final 41 minutes, upset No. 2 USC, 21-14, in the Pac-12 opener before a sold-out crowd of 50,360 at Stanford Stadium and a national FOX television audience.

Troy suffered its fourth consecutive loss to the Cardinal for the first time ever (and its fifth in the past 6 contests). USC's streak of scoring at least 30 points was snapped at 10 games.

Stanford limited USC to 280 total yards (just 91 in the second half), including just 26 on the ground (its fewest since getting 1 rushing yards versus Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl), and 0-of-12 on third down conversions. The Cardinal came up with 3 turnovers and sacked QB Matt Barkley 4 times while picking him off twice.

USC built a 14-7 lead 18:41 into the game on a pair of 1-yard TD runs by TB Silas Redd sandwiching a 59-yard scoring burst by Taylor.

But it was all Stanford after that, as QB Josh Nunes hit Taylor on a 23-yard game-tying pass late in the third quarter and then found TE Zach Ertz on a 37-yard TD toss on the next possession.

Taylor ran for 153 yards on 27 carries and added 60 yards on 5 receptions, Ertz had 3 catches for 71 yards and Nunes was 15-of-32 for 215 yards but had 2 aerials picked off. The Cardinal had 417 total yards, including 202 rushing, but converted just 5-of-14 third downs and missed 3 field goals.

Barkley was 20-of-41 for 254 yards, with 8 completions going to WR Marqise Lee for 100 yards. LB Lamar Dawson had a game-best 10 tackles, LB Dion Bailey added 9 tackles and an interception, S T.J. McDonald had 9 stops and blocked a field goal and S Jawanza Starling had an interception. USC was without starting C Khaled Holmes, who was injured the previous week.

It was only the second time in history that the Trojans played in a game that finished with a 21-14 score.

California	0	3	6	0	—	9
USC	7	10	0	10	—	27

Behind a defense that posted 9 sacks, including 3.5 by DE Morgan Breslin, and an offense fueled by 100-yard rushing outings from TBs Silas Redd and Curtis McNeal along with a pair of TD throws from QB Matt Barkley to WR Marqise Lee, No. 13 USC had a nice bounce back win over California, 27-9, on a hot and humid afternoon in the Coliseum before 83,421 fans and a Pac-12 Networks national TV audience.

It was USC's ninth consecutive win over the Golden Bears and it came in the 100th meeting between the schools.

USC limited the Bears to 250 total yards, including just 77 on the ground (they had been averaging 465 and 209, respectively), and kept Cal out of the end zone (it had been averaging 34 points). Troy's 9 sacks were its most since getting 9 against Oregon State in 2007 and Breslin's 3.5 sacks and 4.5 tackles for loss were the most by a Trojan since Lawrence Jackson set school records of 4 and 5.5, respectively, against Arizona State in 2007. S T.J. McDonald had 9 tackles and an interception, LB Lamar Dawson also had 9 stops, S Jawanza Starling had an interception for his second consecutive game and DTs George Uko and Leonard Williams each had 2 sacks.

Redd, who ran for a season-high 158 yards on 21 carries (7.5 yards per carry), and McNeal, who had 115 yards on 10 tries (11.5 average), became the first pair of Trojan 100-yard rushers in a game since the 2008 Washington State game, when Broderick Green, Stafon Johnson and C.J. Gable did so. USC had 296 rushing yards, its most since getting 298 versus Washington in 2010. USC had 488 yards of total offense and 29 first downs (to Cal's 21). Barkley was 22-of-34 for 192 yards (but was picked off twice), while Lee had 11 catches for 94 yards and WR Robert Woods added 5 grabs for 30 yards.

USC built a 17-3 halftime lead, as Redd raced 33 yards for a score on Troy's second possession. Then, following a 24-yard Cal field goal by PK Vincenzo D'Amato early in the second quarter, USC countered with an 11-yard Barkley-to-Lee scoring pass and a 40-yard field goal with 3 seconds to go by PK Andre Heidari, who returned to action after missing the previous 2 games with a knee injury.

A pair of D'Amato field goals (26 and 35 yards) in the third quarter tightened the score, but Heidari nailed a 41-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to culminate a 12-play drive that lasted 5:55 and then Barkley hit Lee for a 3-yard TD on USC's next possession to cap a 14-play drive that ate up 6:22.

For Cal, QB Zach Maynard was 18-of-33 for 173 yards with the 2 picks and WR Keenan Allen had 9 receptions for 93 yards.

It was the first-ever appearance of USC football on the new Pac-12 Networks.

GAME 5 – October 4, Salt Lake City, Utah
USC 38, Utah 28
Att: 46,037

USC	7	17	0	14	—	38
Utah	14	7	0	7	—	28

QB Matt Barkley threw 3 touchdowns and CB Nickell Robey had a key fourth quarter scoring interception runback to help No. 13 USC overcome a near-disastrous start and post a 38-28 victory at Utah in front of a sold-out crowd of 46,037 and a national ESPN Thursday night audience.

It was USC's first visit to Salt Lake City since 1917. The Trojans tied the school record for consecutive games without being shut out at 186. The crowd was the fourth largest in stadium history. Both teams were coming off byes.

Utah jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the game's first 3 minutes thanks to a pair of bad center snaps by Troy, the first on the game's second play when DE Nate Fakahafua ran 8 yards for a TD after he snatched the ball from Barkley after he picked it up off the ground and then QB Jon Hays hit WR Kenneth Scott for an 11-yard score after DT Star Lotulelei's fumble recovery on USC's third play of its next possession.

But USC drove 75 yards on its third possession, capped by TB Silas Redd's 3-yard TD run. PK Andre Heidari tightened the score with a 32-yard field goal early in the second quarter, but the Utes countered with an 18-yard Hays scoring toss to WR DeVonte Christopher to go up 21-10. The Trojans then scored the next 28 points, with Barkley TD passes of 23 yards to TE Randall Telfer, who made a one-handed catch, and 6 yards to WR Robert Woods (after DE Morgan Breslin recovered a fumble caused by Robey) to put USC up 24-21 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Barkley threw an 83-yard scoring bomb to WR Marqise Lee (career longs for both players) early in the fourth quarter and then Robey returned a pick 38 yards for a TD on Utah's ensuing possession. Utah got a score in the game's final minute against USC's reserves on RB Kelvin York's 5-yard TD run.

USC had more total yards (432 to 304) and first downs (22 to 15), but the Trojans missed 2 second half field goals. There were 27 penalties in the game for 222 yards, including 14 for 100 yards by USC (the most by Troy since getting 16 against Washington in 2007 and the most by a USC opponent since UCLA had 13 in 2003).

Barkley completed 76.7% of his passes (23-of-30), Lee had 12 receptions for 192 yards, Woods added 6 grabs for 69 yards and Redd ran for 77 yards on 17 tries. S T.J. McDonald had 9 tackles, while Robey and LB Hayes Pullard added 7 stops.

For Utah, Hays was 19-of-32 for 160 yards, Christopher (62 yards), WR Dres Anderson (47 yards) and TE Jake Murphy (41 yards) each had 6 catches and RB John White had 68 yards on 13 carries.

GAME 6 – October 13, Seattle, Washington
USC 24, Washington 14
Att: 66,202

USC	10	14	0	0	—	24
Washington	7	0	7	0	—	14

No. 11 USC, taking advantage of getting 4 turnovers and 5 sacks, blocking a punt and running for more than 200 yards, held on to beat Washington, 24-14, before 66,202 fans at Seattle's CenturyLink Field and a national FOX-TV audience.

In the process, the Trojans set a school record for consecutive games without being shut out (187).

USC jumped out to a 24-7 halftime lead while gaining 233 total yards to UW's 87, but Troy managed just 138 total yards without scoring in the second half as the Huskies came alive.

USC scored on its first 2 possessions of the game, first on a 23-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari and then on an 11-yard run by TB Silas Redd (3 plays after an interception by LB Dion Bailey). Late in the first quarter, Washington converted an interception into a 17-yard TD pass from QB Keith Price to WR Kasen Williams. But USC responded on its ensuing possession by driving 76 yards, capped by an 18-yard scoring toss from QB Matt Barkley to TE Xavier Grimble. Then, late in the half, CB Anthony Brown blocked a Husky punt and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown to build USC's lead to 17 points.

After Washington blocked a Heidari field goal midway through the third quarter, Price hit TE Austin Seferian-Jenkins on a 29-yard TD strike to pull within 10 points. The Huskies threatened on their next 2 possessions, but on the first they missed a field goal and on the second on second-and-goal Price lost the ball on the USC 3 as S Jawanza Starling forced and recovered the fumble (UW's next 2 possessions also resulted in turnovers, first an interception by CB Josh Shaw and then DT Leonard Williams recovered a fumble that Bailey forced).

Overall, USC had 371 total yards (204 rushing) to UW's 299, but converted just 2-of-12 third downs and had 10 penalties.

Redd rushed for 155 yards on 26 carries and TB Curtis McNeal added 58 yards on 11 tries, Barkley was 10-of-20 for 167 yards and WR Robert Woods had 5 catches for 88 yards. S T.J. McDonald posted 9 tackles and Bailey and LB Hayes Pullard each had 7, while Williams and DE Morgan Breslin each had 1.5 sacks.

For Washington, Price was 20-of-28 for 198 yards (he completed 16 consecutive throws at one point), Seferian-Jenkins had 5 receptions for 83 yards and TB Bishop Sankey ran for 54 yards on 14 tries. The Huskies converted just 3-of-12 third downs and held the ball just 27:57.

UW's 2012 home games were played at CenturyLink Field while Husky Stadium underwent renovations.

GAME 7 – October 20, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 50, Colorado 6
Att: 83,274

Colorado	3	3	0	0	—	6
USC	19	14	7	10	—	50

QB Matt Barkley and WR Robert Woods had record-setting performances as No. 11 USC manhandled Colorado, 50-6, before 83,274 fans in the sold-out Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

The Trojans have never lost in 7 meetings against the Buffaloes.

Barkley threw a USC single game record-tying 6 touchdown passes, including a school record-tying 5 in the first half, to become the Pac-12's career TD pass recordholder (102, breaking Matt Leinart's mark of 99). He completed 95.0% of his passes (19-of-20, with a drop on the incompletion) to set the Pac-12 game mark for highest completion percentage (minimum 20 attempts), just .8% shy of the NCAA record. His passing efficiency rating of 319.2 also broke the Pac-12 game standard. He threw for 298 yards overall and was 16-of-17 for 269 yards in the first half.

Woods, midway through his junior season, set the USC career receptions record (220, breaking Dwayne Jarrett's mark of 216) and the school single game TD catch record (4, tying the Pac-12 record). He had 8 receptions for 132 yards. USC jumped out to a 19-0 lead 6 minutes into the contest.

Barkley threw a 55-yard scoring pass on the game's second play to WR Marqise Lee, who had 6 catches for 103 yards. After S Drew McAllister picked off a CU pass in the end zone on the ensuing possession, Troy marched 80 yards in 4 plays, capped by a 39-yard Barkley-to-Woods TD toss. McAllister recovered a fumble deep in Colorado territory on the Buffaloes' next play and Barkley found TE Xavier Grimble for an 8-yard TD 2 plays later.

Colorado got its only points on a pair of PK Will Oliver field goals (27 and 37 yards) in a 3-minute span in the first and second quarters (the second one coming after a Trojan fumble). Then Barkley connected with Woods for another 3 TDs, the first one for 29 yards as Barkley passed Leinart's record, then the second one for 17 yards midway through the second quarter as Woods eclipsed Jarrett's record to put USC up 33-6 at halftime and the third for 3 yards early in the second half that sent most of the Trojan starters to the bench.

USC added fourth quarter scores on a 24-yard TD pass from QB Max Wittek to TB D.J. Morgan (the first career touchdowns for both players) and a 37-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari.

USC's 7 TD passes in the game was a school standard. Morgan ran for 52 yards on 10 carries. USC had 458 total yards (340 passing), averaging 9.5 yards per play, to CU's 351 total yards even though the Buffaloes had the ball nearly 15 more minutes (37:10) while running 85 plays to USC's 48 and had more first downs (25 to 22). USC's 48 plays were its fewest since getting 48 against Arizona in 1981 and its 22:50 possession time was its least since the 2005 Notre Dame game (21:20).

USC had 5 sacks and came up with 6 turnovers (besides McAllisters', LB Tony Burnett and S Gerald Bowman had picks and DE Kevin Greene and LB Will Andrew recovered fumbles), including 3 in the red zone. The Trojans were penalized 9 times. LB Anthony Sarao posted a game-best 9 tackles.

For Colorado, QB Jordan Webb was 18-of-35 for 210 yards and TB Christian Powell ran for 56 yards on 14 tries.

It was USC's 300th October victory. The Stanley Cup won by the Los Angeles Kings in 2012 was displayed during an on-field presentation.

GAME 8 – October 27, Tucson, Arizona
Arizona 39, USC 36
Att: 47,822

USC	0	21	7	8	—	36
Arizona	10	3	13	13	—	39

Arizona scored 26 consecutive points to fight back from a 15-point second half deficit and then held on to beat No. 10 USC, 39-36, despite record-setting performances by WR Marqise Lee and QB Matt Barkley in a wild offensive explosion before 47,822 fans in Tucson and a national ABC/ESPN2 audience.

The loss snapped Troy's 5-game winning streak in Tucson. It was the sixth straight USC-UA game decided by a TD or less.

Lee had a Pac-12 record 345 receiving yards (fifth most in NCAA history) on 16 catches (1 shy of the USC record and third most in Pac-12 history) with 2 TDs, including 12 grabs for 255 yards in the first half, and he had 469 all-purpose yards (second most recognized in NCAA history) as he added 123 yards on 3 kickoff returns and a 1-yard rush. Six of Lee's catches were for at least 28 yards (57, 50, 49, 44, 32 and 28 yards). Lee and fellow WR Robert Woods, who had 9 grabs for 93 yards, set a USC record for most receiving yards in a game by 2 players (438) and tied the USC record for most receptions in a game by 2 players (25).

Barkley threw for a USC record 493 yards on 31-of-49 passing with 3 TDs (he was 21-of-29 for 321 yards at halftime) and he had 497 total yards, also a USC record. It was his third career 400-yard passing day, tying a USC standard, and he set the Pac-12 career mark for most rushing and passing TDs (111).

The teams combined for 1,206 total yards (618 by USC to UA's 588), including a school-record 493 passing by the Trojans. The Wildcats threw for 369 yards and ran for 219 on 94 plays, the most by a USC opponent since Stanford had 96 in 2000. The game was filled with penalties (Arizona had 14 to USC's 13) and USC had 5 turnovers.

USC fell behind, 10-0, as QB Matt Scott hit WR Johnny Jackson for an 8-yard TD after Arizona got an interception on USC's opening series and then PK John Bonano nailed a 27-yard field goal on the Wildcats' next drive. Troy then took the lead on a pair of Barkley TD passes midway through the second quarter, the first 12 yards to TE Xavier Grimble and then a 49-yarder to Lee. Arizona answered with a 44-yard Bonano field goal, but the Trojans scored on a 3-yard run by TB D.J. Morgan with 42 seconds to play in the half to take a 21-13 halftime lead.

USC extended its margin to 28-13 early in the third quarter on a 44-yard Barkley-to-Lee pass before the Wildcats went on their 26-point run on 4 consecutive possessions. Scott ran for a 10-yard score and then, after USC lost a fumble, he hit WR Dan Buckner for a 9-yard TD, both in the final 4 minutes of the third quarter. RB Ka'Deem Carey followed with a 7-yard TD run and then Scott hit WR David Richards for a 7-yard score with 5:36 to play. USC responded quickly as TB Silas Redd scored on a 10-yard run with 4:40 to go. The Trojans got the ball back with 55 seconds to play at their 13-yard line and drove to midfield, but Barkley's Hail Mary pass fell incomplete to end the game.

Morgan had 63 yards on 9 carries overall and Redd added 57 yards on 13 tries. S T.J. McDonald had 13 tackles and LB Dion Bailey added 9 stops (2 for losses).

Scott accounted for 4 TDs as he was 27-of-50 for 369 yards passing and ran for 100 yards on 15 attempts. Carey rushed for 119 yards on 28 tries, WR Austin Hill had 10 receptions for 259 yards (4 yards shy of the USC opponent record) and Buckner added 7 catches for 57 yards.

GAME 9 – November 3, Los Angeles Coliseum
Oregon 62, USC 51
Att: 93,607

Oregon	14	20	14	14	—	62
USC	3	21	14	13	—	51

RB Kenjon Barner and No. 2 Oregon had historic offensive performances to help the Ducks post a 62-51 shootout victory over No. 18 USC before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 93,607 and a national FOX audience.

The 113 combined points made it the highest scoring game in USC history (it was the third highest scoring game ever between AP ranked teams) and the Ducks' 62 points were the most ever allowed by Troy. USC's 51 points were its most in a losing effort. It was Oregon's 12th consecutive win since falling to the Trojans in Eugene in 2011, as well as the Ducks' 13th straight road victory and their 22nd consecutive game scoring 30-plus points.

The teams combined for 1,345 total yards (730 by Oregon and 615 by USC), with UO's total yardage setting an Oregon school record and breaking a 66-year-old USC opponent record. Oregon averaged 8.8 yards on its 83 plays and USC was at 7.7 yards on its 80 plays. The Ducks 426 rushing yards were the most against USC since Texas A&M had 486 in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl. Oregon's 9 touchdowns and 8 PATs also were USC opponent records, while its 37 first downs tied a Trojan opponent standard.

Barner set USC opponent records for rushing yards (321), touchdowns (5) and points (30) on 38 carries (he also had 2 catches for 26 yards). His rushing yardage was an Oregon game record. Oregon redshirt freshman QB Marcus Mariota tied the USC opponent record for TD passes (4) while completing 20-of-23 passes (87.0%) for 304 yards with no interceptions and he added 96 yards on 15 carries. PK Rob Beard's 8 PATs was a USC opponent mark. WR Josh Huff had 6 catches for 125 yards with 2 scores.

USC WR Marqise Lee had 408 all-purpose yards (the 16th most in NCAA history), including a Pac-12 record 251 on a school-record 8 kickoff returns and 157 with 2 TDs on 12 receptions. QB Matt Barkley completed a school record-tying 35 passes on 54 attempts for 484 yards and 5 TDs with 2 picks. In the process, he set Pac-12 career records for completions and total offense and he also became the first Pac-12 player to have 4 seasons with 2,500 yards of total offense. WRs Nelson Agholor (162 yards) and Robert Woods (71 yards) each had 6 receptions and a TD catch. TB Silas Redd had 92 yards on 18 carries, plus a 20-yard catch.

Oregon scored touchdowns on its first 5 possessions, starting with a 16-yard Mariota pass to RB De'Anthony Thomas 65 seconds into the game. After USC responded with a 39-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari, Mariota hit Huff on a 21-yard score and then, after getting intercepting a USC red zone pass in the end zone, the Ducks marched 80 yards with Barner finishing with a 27-yard TD run to put UO up 21-3. The teams then traded touchdowns on the next 4 possessions, with Barkley's 75-yard bomb to Lee on the first play of that sequence followed by a 5-yard Barner run, a 7-yard Barkley-to-Woods pass and a 14-yard Mariota pass to WR Daryle Hawkins. On the first play after Beard missed a 41-yard field goal, Barkley threw a 76-yard scoring bomb to Agholor to make it 34-24 Oregon at halftime (the teams combined for 864 total yards in the first half), although Troy failed to capitalize on a Duck fumble late in the half by coughing up the ball itself at the UO 23.

USC got within 3 points on the opening series of the second half on a 3-yard Redd TD run, but Oregon responded with a 9-yard Barner TD rush. USC countered with Redd's 3-yard scoring run only to see Mariota hit Huff for a 36-yard TD on the next possession to give the Ducks a 10-point cushion. USC had the game's first punt on its next drive and Oregon answered with a 5-yard Barner TD run to make it a 17-point game. USC came right back as Barkley hit TE Randall Telfer for a 3-yard TD with 5:27 to play and forced Oregon's first punt on the ensuring series, but the Trojans went 4-and-out deep in their territory to set up Barner's fifth TD, a 22-yarder with 1:58 to go. USC closed the scoring on a 3-yard Barkley pass to Lee with 1 second to play.

Three Trojans had double digit tackles: LBs Lamar Dawson (11) and Dion Bailey (10) and S T.J. McDonald (10). USC had 3 sacks.

USC's points, total yards, passing yards (484) and first downs (31) were the most Oregon surrendered in 2012. Its 9 kickoff returns were a school record. Oregon, which had 10 penalties, converted 7-of-11 third downs (and both of its fourth downs). USC converted 8-of-13 third downs.

GAME 10 – November 10, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 38, Arizona State 17
Att: 80,154

Arizona State	7	7	3	0	—	17
USC	7	7	14	10	—	38

TB Curtis McNeal ran for 163 yards and scored 3 touchdowns, QB Matt Barkley threw 3 TDs, WR Marqise Lee had 227 all-purpose yards and the Trojan defense allowed just 108 total yards over the final 3 quarters as No. 21 USC snapped a 2-game losing streak while beating Arizona State, 38-17, before 80,154 Homecoming fans in the Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

It was the 800th victory in Trojan history.

A week after giving up a school-record 62 points and 730 yards to Oregon, USC held ASU to season lows in points and total yards (250). All of the Sun Devils points came off of Trojan turnovers.

After USC fumbled on its first play from scrimmage, ASU QB Taylor Kelly hit H-back Chris Coyle for a 34-yard TD. Late in the first quarter, Barkley hit Lee streaking down the sideline for an 80-yard score. S Alden Darby then took a Barkley interception 70 yards for a TD early in the second quarter. USC tied it 35 second before halftime on a 4-yard Barkley toss to TE Xavier Grimble.

After Barkley threw his third interception of the game on the opening play of the second half, ASU took its last lead with a 28-yard field goal by PK Jon Mora. USC then scored the game's final 24 points, with McNeal getting a 5-yard TD run on the ensuing drive and then Barkley hitting McNeal for a 22-yard score on the next possession. Late in the fourth quarter, USC added a 26-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari and then McNeal had a 27-yard TD run with 38 seconds to play following an interception by LB Lamar Dawson.

McNeal's rushing yards and carries (31) were career highs. Lee had 161 yards on 10 catches and 66 yards on 6 rushes (including a 38-yard end-around in which he reversed his field), and he also played safety on defense for a play (causing an ASU delay of game penalty), but he did not return a kickoff because the Sun Devils decided to pooch their kickoffs. Barkley was 20-of-33 for 222 yards with the 3 TDs and 3 picks as he became the Pac-12's career passing yardage leader.

USC had 447 total yards and 23 first downs while holding the ball 36:26. The teams combined for 9 turnovers (5 by USC). The Trojan defense had 7 sacks. Dawson led USC with 11 tackles, LB Hayes Pullard added 9 tackles (with a sack), S T.J. McDonald had 7 stops and a pick, DT Leonard Williams had 6 tackles (with a sack) and an interception and LB Anthony Sarao had 5 tackles (with a sack) and a fumble recovery.

ASU had just 15 first downs and 71 rushing yards. Kelly was 19-of-30 for 174 yards with 3 interceptions, while TB Marion Grice caught 7 passes for 30 yards.

The game kicked off at noon, the earliest start for a USC game in the Coliseum since 1998 against Purdue (11:30 a.m.). USC's 2012 Olympians were honored at halftime.

GAME 11 – November 17, Pasadena, California
UCLA 38, USC 28
Att: 83,277

USC	0	14	6	8	—	28
UCLA	17	7	7	7	—	38

With the Pac-12 South Division title and a berth in the Pac-12 Championship Game going to the winner, No. 17 UCLA jumped out to a 24-0 second quarter lead and held off No. 21 USC, 38-28, before 83,277 fans in the Rose Bowl and a national FOX audience.

It snapped USC's 5-game winning streak over the Bruins. It was UCLA's most points against the Trojans since 1996. The game's second half was played in a most-constant rain, dropping USC's record against UCLA in rain games to 0-3 (losses also in 1946 and 1961).

UCLA came up with an interception on the game's first play and the Bruins quickly converted on a 1-yard TD run by QB Brett Hundley. UCLA drove 84 yards on its next possession, capped by a 23-yard field goal by PK Ka'imi Fairbairn, and then after USC lost a fumble in its territory on the third play of its ensuing drive, Hundley soon hit TE Joseph Fauria for a 17-yard score late in the first quarter. UCLA traveled 74 yards on its next series, the final 16 yards on a TD run by TB Johnathan Franklin to go up 24-0 with 7:38 to play in the half.

But QB Matt Barkley threw scoring passes on USC's next 2 drives, a 33-yarder to WR Nelson Agholor and a 2-yarder to TE Randall Telfer.

USC pulled within 24-20 just 3 plays into the second half when DT George Uko recovered a Bruin fumble in the end zone. But after a partially blocked USC punt the next time it had the ball, Hundley scored on a 3-yard run. USC couldn't get on the board again until midway through the fourth quarter with a 14-yard Barkley TD pass to WR Marqise Lee to tighten the score to 31-28. But the Bruins responded with an 83-yard drive, with Franklin scoring on a 29-yard run with 4:02 to go.

USC wasted several second half opportunities, missing a field goal and having another blocked as well as throwing an interception while driving in Bruin territory.

USC outgained UCLA, 513 to 406, despite having less plays (80 to 73) and possession time (33:30 to 26:40) while the Bruins had 12 penalties.

Barkley was 20-of-38 for 301 yards with the 3 TDs and 2 picks before leaving with an injury late in the game. Lee had 9 catches for 158 yards to become the Pac-12 season record holder in receiving yardage and WR Robert Woods added 5 grabs for 68 yards. TB Curtis McNeal had 161 yards on 21 carries. LB Hayes Pullard had a game-best 11 tackles, DT Leonard Williams added 10 stops and DE Morgan Breslin had 2 of the defense's 5 sacks.

For UCLA, Hundley was 22-of-30 for 234 yards while setting the school season completion mark, Franklin ran for 171 yards on 29 carries and WR Shaquelle Evans had 8 receptions for 114 yards.

It was the first time since 2001 that UCLA entered the game with a higher ranking than USC (and the first time with more wins since 2000).

GAME 12 – November 24, Los Angeles Coliseum
Notre Dame 22, USC 13
Att: 93,607

Notre Dame	10	6	3	3	—	22
USC	0	10	0	3	—	13

PK Kyle Brindza kicked 5 field goals and No. 1 Notre Dame's defense had a pair of fourth quarter goal line stands to hold off USC, 22-13, before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 93,607 and a national ABC-TV audience.

The victory earned the undefeated Irish a berth in the BCS Championship Game. Although it was just ND's second win over USC in the past 11 games, it was its second straight victory in Los Angeles. It was the first time since 1989 that Troy faced an AP No. 1 Irish team and the first time it played an undefeated ND team since 1993. It was the sixth time a No. 1 ND squad beat the Trojans in 8 tries, including the fourth in 6 such games in the Coliseum. It was USC's fewest points scored in 2012 and its fewest against against Notre Dame since 1998. It also was the first time since 1995 that USC lost to traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in the same season.

USC twice got inside the Notre Dame 5-yard line in the fourth quarter, but could only come away with a 21-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari on the first drive after getting first-and-goal at the 4 early in the quarter and then Troy was shut down on 4 tries at first-and-goal at the 1 with under 3 minutes to play.

Brindza tied Notre Dame and USC opponent game records with his 5 field goals: a 27-yarder on the game's opening drive, a 29-yarder early in the second quarter, a career-best 52-yarder at the halftime gun after a USC interception to give ND a 16-10 lead, a 33-yarder late in the third quarter (after missing a 34-yarder earlier in the quarter) and a 19-yarder late in the game.

USC's other scores came on an 11-yard pass at the top of the second quarter to WR Robert Woods from QB Max Wittek, who started in place of injured QB Matt Barkley, and a 39-yard Heidari field goal late in the first half.

Notre Dame's only touchdown was a 9-yard run by RB Theo Riddick late in the first quarter as the Irish opened up a 10-0 lead.

USC managed just 281 total yards, including only 95 on the ground, and converted just 1-of-8 third downs against the highly-ranked Irish defense (No. 1 in scoring defense, fifth in rushing defense and sixth in total defense).

Notre Dame had 439 total yards (222 rushing and 217 passing) while running off 18 more plays than USC (69 to 51), holding the ball for 34:38 and having no turnovers.

Wittek was 14-of-23 for 186 yards with 2 interceptions and the TD in his debut, Woods had a game-best 7 receptions for 92 yards, WR Marqise Lee added 5 catches for 75 yards to set the Pac-12 season receptions record and he returned 4 kickoffs for 98 yards and TB Silas Redd had 77 yards on 12 carries. LB Hayes Pullard had a game-high 13 tackles, while LB Lamar Dawson and S T.J. McDonald each had 10 stops.

For Notre Dame, Riddick ran for 146 yards on 20 tries, QB Everett Golson was 15-of-26 for 217 yards and added 47 yards on 9 rushes and TE Tyler Eifert had 4 catches for 69 yards.

ESPN's College GameDay pre-game show was at the Coliseum.

GAME 13 – December 31, El Paso, Texas
Sun Bowl
Georgia Tech 21, USC 7
Att: 47,922

USC	0	7	0	0	—	7
Georgia Tech	0	7	7	7	—	21

QB Tevin Washington ran for a touchdown while throwing for another and Georgia Tech used a staunch defense to propel the Yellow Jackets to a 21-7 upset over USC in the 79th Hyundai Sun Bowl in El Paso on a cold (low 40s), windy (20 mph gusts) day before 47,922 fans and a national CBS-TV audience.

USC became the first AP pre-season No. 1 team ever to end up with 6 losses and the first to finish unranked since 1964. It was the Trojans' third straight loss of 2012, their longest losing skid since 2001. Troy lost 5 of its final 6 games after a 6-1 start to snap a streak of 10 straight 8-win seasons. USC, playing in the post-season after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban, remained winless in 3 visits to the Sun Bowl. Georgia Tech, which needed an NCAA waiver (because of a sub-.500 record) to qualify for a bowl berth, broke a 7-bowl game losing streak. It was the first meeting between the schools since 1973.

USC's offense was stymied by a Yellow Jacket defense that was allowing an average of 29.9 points and 387.0 total yards. The Trojans got just 205 total yards (their fewest since also getting 205 versus California in 2004), including 107 passing (fewest since getting 7 against Penn State in 2000), and 10 first downs (fewest since getting 8 versus Florida State in 1998) while converting only 3-of-15 third downs (and 0-of-1 on fourth downs). Troy had just 59 plays while holding the ball only 23:35. USC failed to get a first down in 8 of its 14 possessions. In the second half, the Trojans had just 89 total yards and were shut out on 32 plays.

Georgia Tech, using a spread option attack that averaged 312.5 rushing yards, had 294 of its 369 total yards via the run. The Yellow Jackets passed just 10 times (with only 5 completions) among its 73 plays (the fewest pass attempts against USC since Washington State's 9 in 2008 and the fewest completions since Colorado's 2 in 2002). Tech's 75 passing yards were the fewest versus the Trojans since Notre Dame's 41 in 2008.

After a scoreless first quarter, both teams scored a TD in the second quarter. The Yellow Jackets went 74 yards in 14 plays, capped by a 3-yard pass from QB Vad Lee to RB David Sims early in the quarter. Then, after DE Morgan Breslin forced a fumble that DE Wes Horton recovered, QB Max Wittek hit TB Silas Redd on a 9-yard score with 50 seconds to play.

Georgia Tech took advantage of a 56-yard punt return by CB Jamal Golden to the USC 1-yard line on its first possession of the second half, with Washington getting the 1-yard TD run 2 plays later. Washington then hit RB Orwin Smith on a 17-yard TD pass early in the fourth quarter.

USC got in the red zone on its last 2 possessions in the game's final 7 minutes, but Wittek had passes picked off in the end zone both times.

Wittek, starting his second straight game for injured QB Matt Barkley, completed just 37.8% of his passes (14-of-37) for 107 yards with 1 TD and 3 interceptions while every throw was seemingly affected by the wind. He was 7-of-24 (29.2%) for 49 yards in the second half. Redd ran for 88 yards on 17 carries. WR Marqise Lee caught 6 passes for 41 yards, while WR Robert Woods added 3 grabs for 33 yards.

LB Hayes Pullard had a game-best 16 tackles (the most by a Trojan since Troy Polamalu had 20 against Utah in 2001), DT Leonard Williams had 14 stops and S T.J. McDonald had 13. LB Lamar Dawson had an interception.

For Tech, Sims rushed for 99 yards on 17 tries and RB Zach Laskey added 60 yards on 6 tries. Washington ran for 56 yards on 16 carries and was 3-of-5 passing for 49 yards, while Lee ran for 52 yards on 10 tries and completed 2-of-5 passes for 26 yards.
